Welcome From Head Coach Bob Stoops

Welcome to one of the great traditions in all of sports, football at the University of Oklahoma. Our name is synonymous with the history and excellence of college football.

It is that way because the Sooner program is as vibrant and pertinent today as it was 50 years ago. This is a place where the championships of the past are appreciated, but never do they obscure the pursuit of our next one.

Success here creates a hunger for more; more success on the field, more success in the classroom and more success in life away from football. And the people here ask the right questions... How can we achieve more? How can we do it better? How can we help you reach your goals?

The real winner in that scenario is the student-athlete. This environment inspires greatness and encourages excellence. It does so with an eye on compassion and friendliness, qualities that have long defined this university and the state of Oklahoma.

I don't believe there is a better situation in all of college football than the one that has been created right here in Norman. There is an unmistakable energy and yet a comfortable pace that co-exist on this campus.

It is that atmosphere that allows us each year to strive for college football's highest goals, to prepare for that next championship. We know that success here is judged by championships and we wouldn't have it any other way.

THE STADIUM

Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and, following its recent expansion, now ranks among the 15 largest on-campus facilities in the nation.

58

SEASON OUTLOOK

Oklahoma opens the season against Chattanooga in Norman. A trip to Washington highlights the non-conference schedule with the 103rd OU-Texas game slated for the Cotton Bowl. Big 12 foes Kansas, Nebraska and Texas Tech visit Norman while OU travels to Baylor, Kansas State, Texas A&M and Oklahoma State.

62

ROSTERS

While some might dwell on early NFL departures, there are no tears being shed in Norman. The reason? The number of letterwinners returning in 2008, 40. Even more promosing is that 27 of the 40 return with starting experience including a number of double-digit starters.

Identifying and recruiting talent, coaching talent to play at its peak and preparing players for life after college, whether it be football or in the business world, nobody does it better than head coach Bob Stoops and the Oklahoma coaching staff.

PLAYER BIOS

When a team has 27 starters returning, it's safe to say it has its fair share of top-notch talent stockpiled. A quick look at the preseason honors list confirms that. With a senior class that has played in three BCS bowl games in the last four years, this is a team that knows what it takes to get to college football's big stage.

SEASON REVIEW

Any questions about the 2007 Oklahoma team were answered quickly with a strong start out of the gate. By season's end, the squad marched to its fifth Big 12 title and became the first institution to capture back-to-back conference crowns before playing in its second straight Fiesta Bowl.

SEASON BY SEASON

The 2008 season will mark the 114th season of intercollegiate football at OU. The Sooners were playing football 12 years before Oklahoma became a state. Rarely has a football program and commonwealth enjoyed a more harmonious relationship that what exists in the Sooner state.

SOONER FOOTBALL TRADITION

Great college football and the Oklahoma Sooners. For as long as anyone can remember the two have been one and the same. Unlike some schools where tradition represents ancient history, or others where it harkens back only a few years, Oklahoma's tradition is a constant accomplishment unfettered by eras or time.

The Sooners were playing football before Oklahoma became a state and have achieved a legacy so successful, that more than contributing to the history of this great game, it defines it.

Most Successful Program of the Modern Era

Oklahoma is king in the modern era of college football. Since the end of World War II, the Sooners are the nation's No. 1 team, with more victories (535) than any other school and the best winning percentage (.760). Victories 1946-2007:

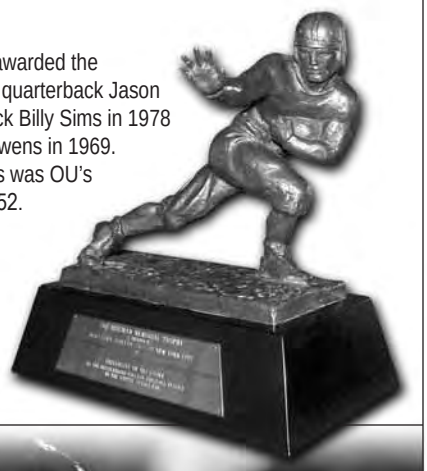
Greatest Players in College Football

Some of the greatest players in college football history have worn the Crimson and Cream. The University of Oklahoma has averaged more than one All-American per year since it began playing football in 1895. To date, OU players have earned the prestigious honor 144 times.

Four Sooners have been awarded the Heisman Trophy including quarterback Jason White in 2003, running back Billy Sims in 1978 and running back Steve Owens in 1969. Running back Billy Vessels was OU's first Heisman winner in 1952.



Why Oklahoma? Rufus Alexander, Minnesota Vikings

"The people made this the right decision for me. Everyone welcomes you here and they're all very encouraging. You believe that you will become a great player here because the people here keeping telling you it will happen. It's a very positive environment for a player."

BOOMING SOONERS

What have you done for me lately?

In Oklahoma's case, plenty. This is one of the hottest programs in all of sports.

Oklahoma has played in three national championship games over the last eight seasons, owns five Big 12 championships during that time and has played in all four of the BCS games. OU also has turned out a list of award winners and draft picks so long that it taxes even the best memory to name them all.

Greatness begets greatness and there has been plenty of that in Norman lately. Now, from all corners of the country, the best players come to join a program of traditional success that is riding one of its biggest waves.

71 Consecutive Televised Games

Imagine every game of your college career televised for family and friends back home. To a Sooner, that's no dream; it's reality. Every one of the past 71 OU football games have been on TV.

Thanks to ABC, ESPN and Fox Sports Net millions of viewers tune in to see Oklahoma on a regular basis.

Everyone loves a winner and the Sooners have been just that under head coach Bob Stoops. But OU's success has driven ratings since the program's first televised game in 1952. In all, the Sooners have played 263 games on TV.

This is the center of the college football world and the television cameras are never far away.

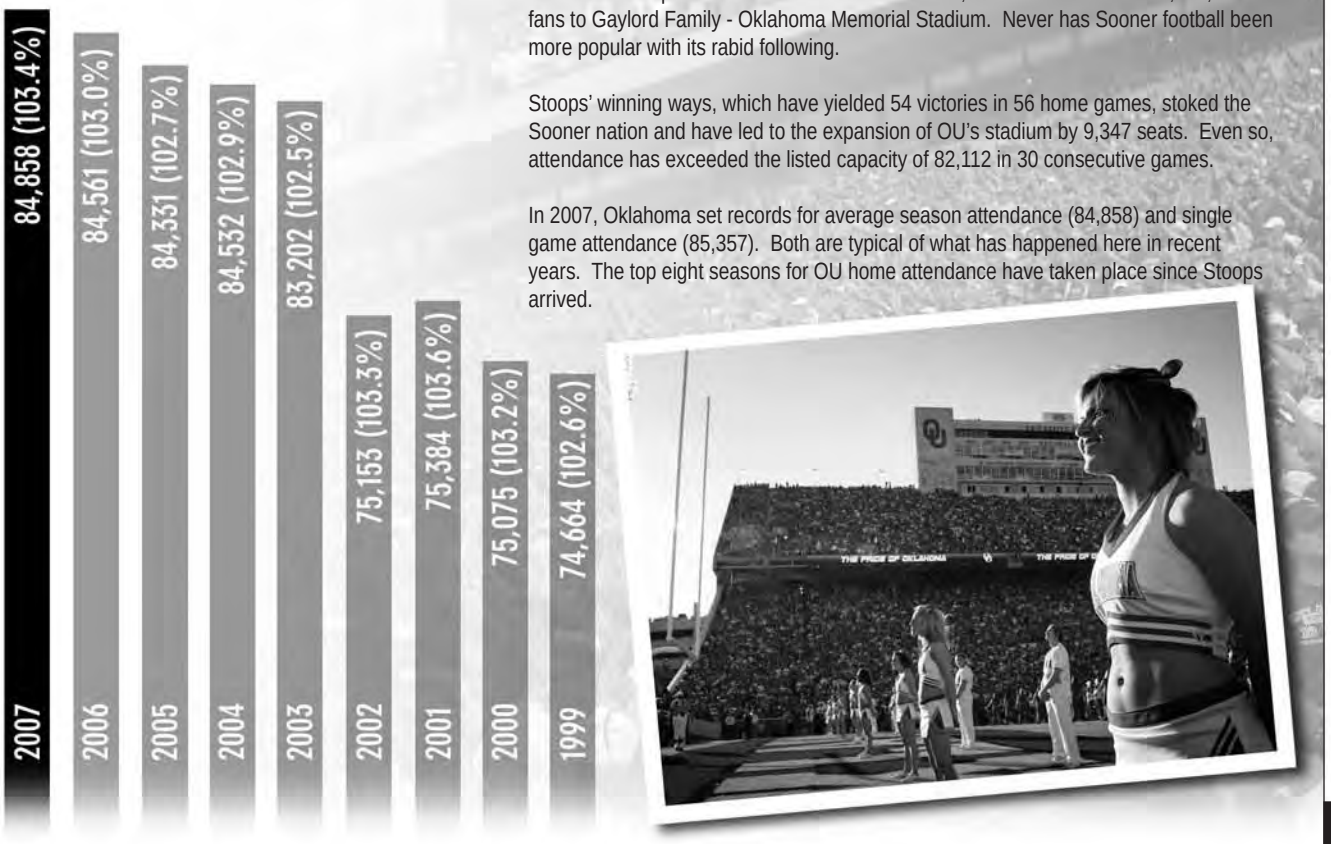
MEMORIAL STADIUM

Stoops Era Attendance Exceeds Four Million

Since Bob Stoops became the head coach in 1999, Oklahoma has drawn 4,499,034 fans to Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. Never has Sooner football been more popular with its rabid following.

Stoops' winning ways, which have yielded 54 victories in 56 home games, stoked the Sooner nation and have led to the expansion of OU's stadium by 9,347 seats. Even so, attendance has exceeded the listed capacity of 82,112 in 30 consecutive games.

In 2007, Oklahoma set records for average season attendance (84,858) and single game attendance (85,357). Both are typical of what has happened here in recent years. The top eight seasons for OU home attendance have taken place since Stoops arrived.



SEVEN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

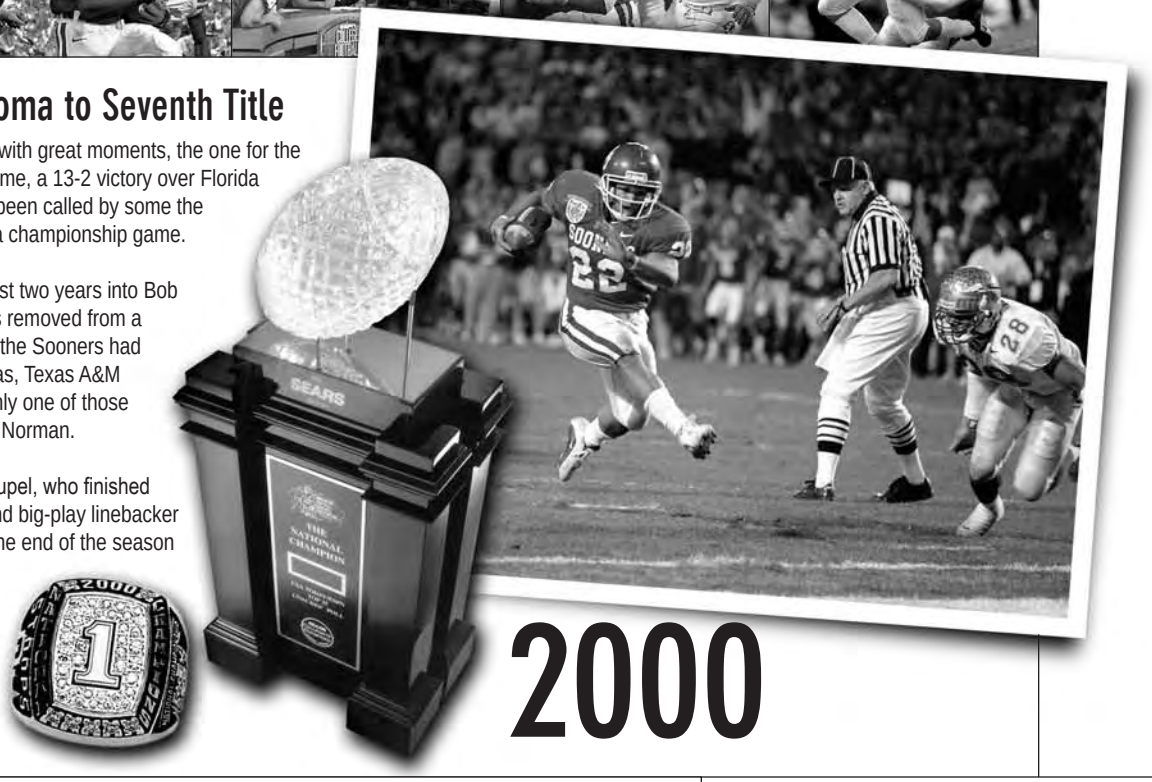
2000 NATIONAL CHAMPS

Stoops Leads Oklahoma to Seventh Title

In a 2000 season so richly laced with great moments, the one for the ages came in the national title game, a 13-2 victory over Florida State in the Orange Bowl. It has been called by some the greatest defensive effort ever in a championship game.

The national title season came just two years into Bob Stoops' tenure and just two years removed from a sub-.500 season. Along the way, the Sooners had thrilling wins over Nebraska, Texas, Texas A&M and Kansas State (twice), with only one of those contests played at Owen Field in Norman.

Headliners included QB Josh Heupel, who finished second in the Heisman voting, and big-play linebacker Torrance Marshall. The mark at the end of the season was an unblemished 13-0.



2000

HEAD COACH BOB STOOPS

Oklahoma is Championship Football

Nothing defines the competitive success of a college athletics program like a national championship. Oklahoma, with seven national titles sprinkled over four decades, is one of the very few programs that sets out each fall with the expectation and legitimate goal of pursuing the national crown. That pursuit rates as a lot more than just talk around here.

The aura is unmistakable, and it radiates from real and repeated success on college football's biggest stage. Oklahoma has claimed more national championships than any other Big 12 program.

The Sooners under Bob Stoops earned the program's most recent title in 2000 with an Orange Bowl victory over Florida State to cap an undefeated, 13-0 season. OU's other championships came under Barry Switzer in 1985, 1975 and 1974, and Bud Wilkinson in 1956, 1955 and 1950.

Oklahoma has played for the BCS title three times during Stoops' tenure.

Head Coach Barry Switzer

Barry Switzer led his Oklahoma teams to national championships in 1974, 1975 and 1985. He also won 12 Big Eight Conference championships and had eight bowl victories in 13 appearances. Switzer directed the Sooners on a 28-game win streak from 1973 (his first season as head coach) to 1975. When Oklahoma won the national championship in 1975, it marked the first time in history a team had won back-to-back titles more than once. In 1970, as an assistant, he convinced head coach Chuck Fairbanks to make the most significant and gutsy move in OU's football history, a switch to the wishbone offense.

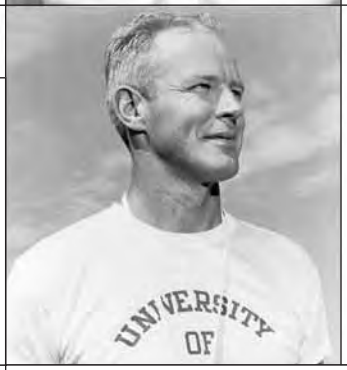
BUD WILKINSON



Head Coach Bud Wilkinson

Oklahoma's 13th football coach produced teams that were 6-2 in postseason play, won the national championship in 1950, 1955 and 1956 and did not lose an astounding 74 straight conference games from 1946-1959 (72 wins, 2 ties). His teams still hold the modern record for consecutive wins by a FBS school with 47 straight victories from 1953-1957. After the 1947 season, the Sooners won 12 straight conference championships. In 17 seasons at Oklahoma, Wilkinson fostered racial integration and graduated players at an 87.2 percentage rate while becoming the eighth winningest coach in FBS history.

No Team Has More Big 12 Titles

Oklahoma won its first conference championship in 1915 and has since tacked on another 40. In other words, the Sooners average a conference title just about every two seasons.

That same pace has carried through the Bob Stoops era with five league crowns in nine years. That feat merits considerable respect. Under the Big 12 format, teams must first win a divisional crown over five opponents before advancing to meet the other divisional winner at a neutral site.

Five Big 12 Conference Championships

Since the formation of the Big 12 Conference in 1996, no team has won as many league titles as Oklahoma. In fact, no other schools won won more than two and six of the league members are yet to win their first. The most recent of OU's five came in 2007 when the Sooners handled No. 1 Missouri, 38-17, at the Alamodome in San Antonio. The Sooners' other Big 12 crowns came in 2006 (21-7 over Nebraska at Kansas City), 2004 (42-3 over Colorado at Kansas City), 2002 (29-7 over Colorado at Houston) and 2000 (27-24 over Kansas State at Kansas City).

144 ALL-AMERICANS

If it's a college football season, the likelihood is that more than one Sooner ranks among the best players in the land. That was true in 1913 when OU produced its first All-American and it's true today when the rate of additions is so rapid that the total now outnumbers the age of the program itself.

One of college football's greatest programs has been built by some of college football's finest players. That's the natural result when talent meets coaching at a program with eye-popping facilities and great visibility.

Consensus All-Americans in the Big 12

University of Oklahoma players have earned consensus All-America honors 65 times in the program's history. No other school in the Big 12 Conference has produced more consensus All-Americans.

What is a consensus All-American? The NCAA officially recognizes selections from five All-America teams: The Sporting News, AP, AFCA, FWAA and Walter Camp.

A player is designated a consensus All-American if he is a first team selection on at least three of the five teams.

NATIONAL AWARD WINNERS

Sixteen Winners in Last Eight Seasons

For many years, college football has paused at the end of each season to recognize its finest players. The award names like Heisman, Outland, Thorpe and Butkus are woven into the fabric of the game as a tribute to the past and a beacon for the present.

The awards ceremonies attract the greatest names in the game, and of course, they attract and honor Oklahoma Sooners. The road to the bright lights, podium and acceptance speech starts with great talent and hard work, common staples at OU. The Sooner program then provides the national stage on which players can be seen. The result has been an impressive collection of hardware.

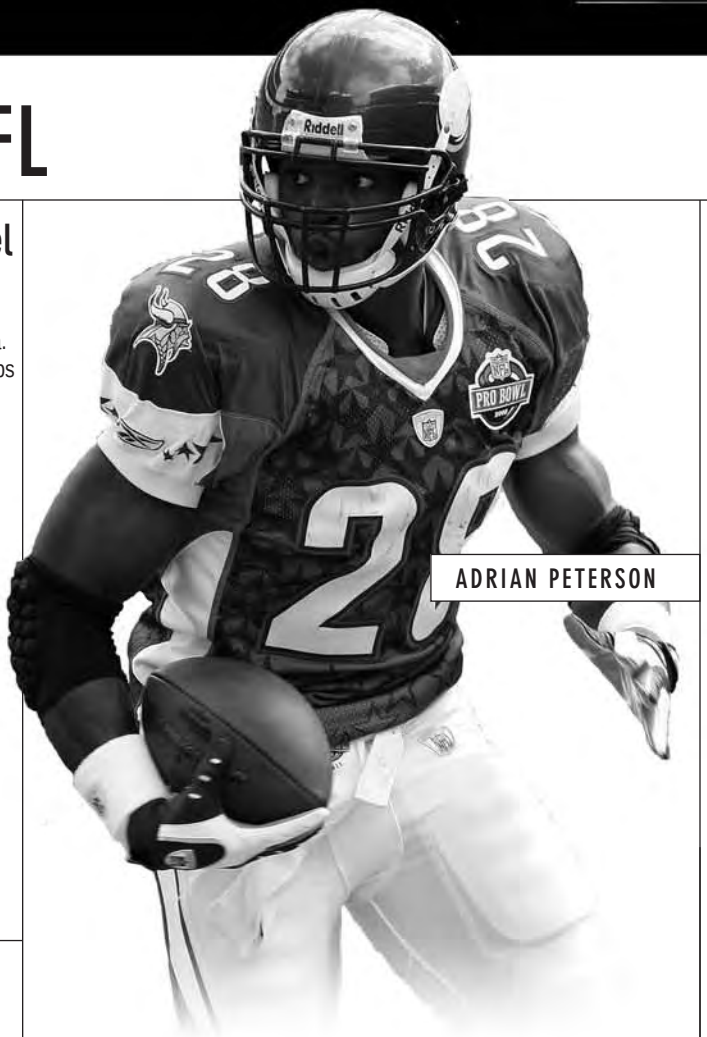
SOONERS IN THE NFL

Elite Program Prepares Players for Next Level

The league. Pro ball. The next level. It is the dream of every college football player. It is reality for many Oklahoma Sooners. Few programs in the country attract talent and prepare it to move on better than Oklahoma. Four Sooners were tabbed in the 2008 NFL Draft alone, giving Bob Stoops a total of 36 of his former Sooners drafted into the league.

OU plays pro schemes, has two coaches who had lengthy NFL careers and employs a rigorous strength and conditioning program that is so effective that many of those who have gone on to professional careers come back to Norman in the offseason to continue their training.

Players with the ability and drive to make the NFL flourish at Oklahoma and leave here equipped to play football beyond their college days.



ADRIAN PETERSON

A.D. -- NFL Rookie of the Year, Pro Bowl MVP

Adrian Peterson, who ran for 4,045 yards and 41 touchdowns while earning All-America honors at Oklahoma, has rapidly become one of the highest profile players in the National Football League.

The Minnesota Vikings running back was named the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press after rushing for 1,341 yards in 2007. He led the NFC in rushing and was No. 2 among all NFL backs. He highlighted his season by running for an NFL record 296 yards against San Diego.

Peterson earned a reputation as a big-play back, logging seven total plays and four rushes of 50 or more yards, both Vikings records.

And just as he had done at OU, Peterson made a habit of finding the end zone. With 12 rushing touchdowns, he tied for second in the NFL.

As most anticipated, it didn't take the Sooner long to adjust to the pro game. In his very first outing, he rushed for 103 yards and caught a 60-yard touchdown pass against Atlanta.

At season's end, Peterson earned a trip to the Pro Bowl and became just the second rookie running back in the NFL to be so honored.

The Palestine, Texas, native made national recruiting news when he chose Oklahoma as his college home. The decision paid big dividends for Peterson, who was runner-up for the Heisman Trophy as a freshman. He became a household name while wearing a Sooner uniform earning cover appearances on both Sports Illustrated and ESPN the Magazine.

Today, he is another shining example of how so many Oklahoma players have used the comprehensive platform of the OU program to springboard to their NFL dream.

NATIONAL ATTENTION AT OU

Sooners at Center of College Football

Oklahoma is a household name due to the overwhelming media attention that hovers around the Sooners. Writers and broadcasters representing the nation's most recognized media outlets regularly interact with Sooner players and coaches and routinely spend time in Norman.

And when they can't come to campus, those same observers keep tabs on OU thanks to extensive television coverage. In 2006, all 14 Oklahoma games appeared on live television, including seven that were carried nationally or regionally on ABC or TBS. The Sooners are at the very center of college football and the entire world is watching.

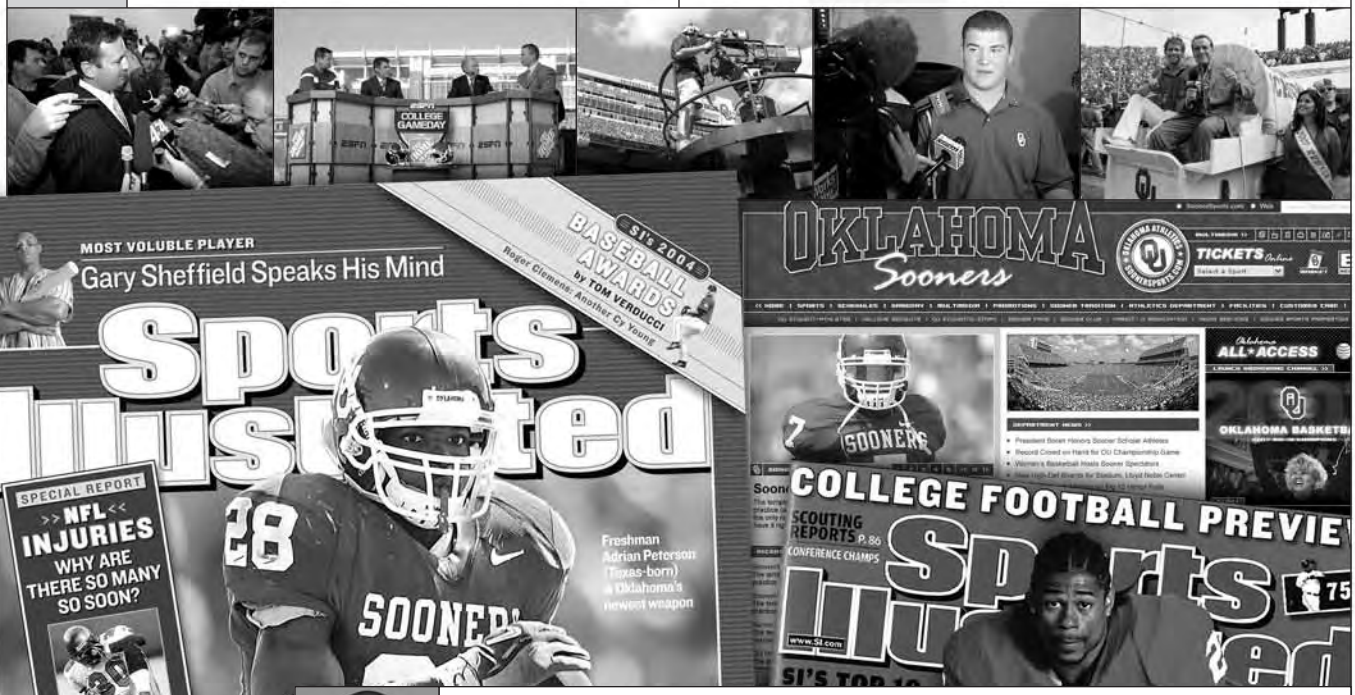
8	The popularity of the Sooners is evident in the immense amount of products and apparel purchased by fans. OU ranks eighth in the nation in sales of licensed merchandise.
17	Over the past eight years, ESPN's popular College Gameday production has broadcast on site from 17 of Oklahoma's games. That's an average of more than two games per season.
30	Sooner football is one of the most popular subjects for SI with 30 cover appearances. Since 2000, Oklahoma players have appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated nine times.
38	More than 38 million people visited SoonerSports.com last year, making the official web site of the Oklahoma Athletics Department one of the top collegiate sites in the nation.
56	The Sooners have played in front of 56 consecutive sellout crowds at Oklahoma Memorial Stadium in Norman, including every home game of Coach Bob Stoops' tenure.
96	Over the past five seasons, 96 percent of Oklahoma's games were televised live (90 of 94 games). In fact, 71 consecutive OU games have been on TV.



Why Oklahoma? J.D. Runnels, Chicago Bears

"I didn't know where I was going until I heard Coach Stoops' voice on the other end of the phone There was always a special place in my heart for OU. I was aware of the winning tradition, national championships and bowl success that they had and all of the great players they produced."

24 BOWL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Forty-one bowl appearances and 24 bowl victories have firmly entrenched Oklahoma among the most tradition-rich schools in America. The Sooners have become synonymous with postseason play at the highest level.

At a school where the bowl history is laced with games of historical significance, the last few years have represented another fabulous roll for the Schooner. Three times in the last eight seasons, the Sooners have played for the national championship, five times they have been in BCS bowls and in seven seasons they played in January games.

OU enjoys favored status among the bowl community, mostly for its tradition, but also for its fan following. Some 50,000 ventured to the Rose, Sugar, Orange and Fiesta Bowls over the last few seasons. Regardless of the location, Sooner fans flock to follow a bowl tradition that is as fresh as it is historic.

Head coach Bob Stoops has taken all nine of his Oklahoma teams to bowl games during his tenure in Norman. Of the nine games, three were National Championship bouts, six were BCS bowl games and seven were in January.

The Sooners and their fans have enjoyed trips to Phoenix, San Diego, Miami, Pasadena, New Orleans and Dallas while playing in some of the most prestigious bowls in college football.

OU-TEXAS WEEKEND

Storied Rivalry at Cotton Bowl in October

The Oklahoma-Texas game, played each season at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, a location approximately halfway between the two campuses, is one of the country's most spectacular sporting events.

Staged during the State Fair of Texas, the contest is witnessed by a crowd perfectly defined by color – half crimson, half burnt orange – in an atmosphere that is arguably more unique than that found at any other game. This rivalry is one that marks time and gives players and fans alike experiences for a lifetime.

GOLDEN HAT TROPHY

The Tunnel Experience

"From the top of The Tunnel that leads into the floor of the Cotton Bowl it looks like no big deal. All you can see is end zone. Then you start running and the world explodes around you. Your eardrums are pounded by the screams of 75,587 people and the blasts of the modified 12-gauge shotguns that the OU Ruf/Nek spirit group carries...

You feel the world shake and start to understand why every Longhorn or Sooner who has taken these steps before you can never seem to find the exact words necessary to convey what has just happened.

You've just run down the tunnel at the OU-Texas game -- generally regarded as one of the greatest moments a college football player can experience."

FOOTBALL TIME IN OKLAHOMA

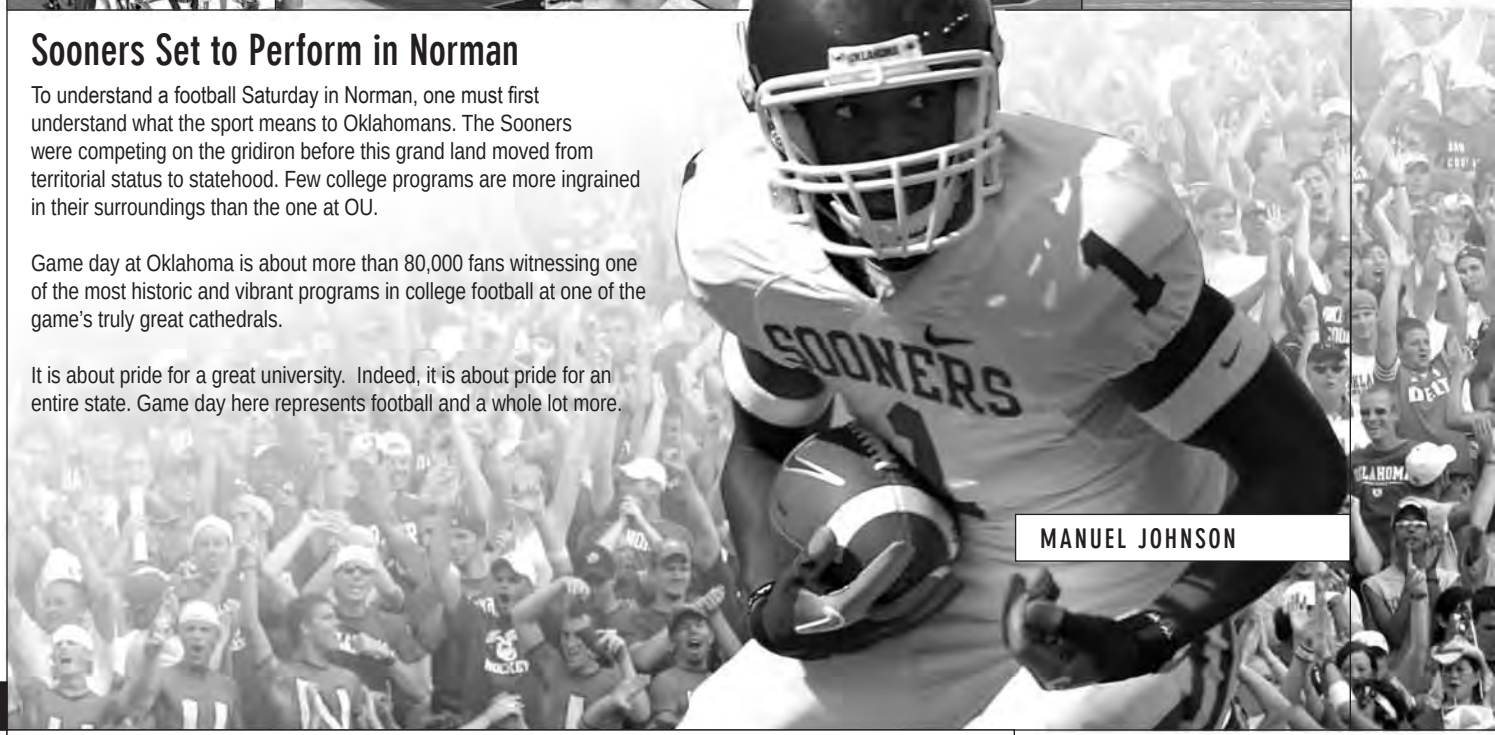
SOONERS TAKE THE FIELD

Sooners Set to Perform in Norman

To understand a football Saturday in Norman, one must first understand what the sport means to Oklahomans. The Sooners were competing on the gridiron before this grand land moved from territorial status to statehood. Few college programs are more ingrained in their surroundings than the one at OU.

Game day at Oklahoma is about more than 80,000 fans witnessing one of the most historic and vibrant programs in college football at one of the game's truly great cathedrals.

It is about pride for a great university. Indeed, it is about pride for an entire state. Game day here represents football and a whole lot more.



MANUEL JOHNSON

5	Although OU just completed a stadium expansion, the facility operated at 103 percent capacity in 2007 -- fifth best in the nation. That means no empty seats for games in Norman.
10	The official capacity of Memorial Stadium is 82,112 but OU averaged 84,858 fans per game last season. That put the Sooners at No. 10 in the nation in average attendance.
15	Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is the 15th largest stadium in the country.
34	Since the stadium's opening in 1923, the Sooners have 34 undefeated seasons at home, including six perfect home seasons under head coach Bob Stoops.
56	The Sooners have played in front of 56 consecutive sellout crowds in Norman, every home game of Bob Stoops' tenure.
80	Oklahoma has won 80 percent of its home games at Memorial Stadium. Since the facility's opening in 1923, the Sooners are 338-80-14 at home.

OU FOOTBALL FACILITIES

Preparation Meets Opportunity

It would be hard to imagine a football program doing more over the last six years to enhance its facilities than OU. The $70 million expansion and enhancement of Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is perhaps the most noticeable upgrade, but it is simply the lead project in a plan that has impacted every facet of Sooner football.

A new locker room, a new indoor training facility, a new weight training facility, a new practice field, roughly 8,000 new seats and 60 new stadium suites are testaments to OU's dedication to providing the best for its student-athletes. Preparation routinely meets opportunity at Oklahoma. It does so largely because the Sooners have what they need to succeed.

4	Four regulation-size practice fields are available to the Sooners right outside their locker room: Owen Field, two grass fields plus an artificial turf field with sand pit.
65	The ceiling inside the Everest Training Facility hangs a full 65 feet above the SafePlay Synthetic Turf surface. This allows for all kicking and throwing drills during practice.
70	Oklahoma recently completed a $70 million stadium expansion and enhancement project that added nearly 9,500 seats.
74	On those rare days that the weather forces Oklahoma to practice indoors, the Sooners can move to the 74,000-square-foot Everest Indoor Training Facility.

COACH JERRY SCHMIDT

Championship Strength & Conditioning

The best testimony for the impact Jerry Schmidt and his staff have on Oklahoma football players comes from former Oklahoma players -- those in professional football. It's not uncommon for members of that select fraternity to return to Norman for part of their offseason training regimen. During their time in the Sooner program, they learned the quality of the strength and conditioning program.

Schmidt has been involved with three national football championships at three different schools. His success is no coincidence. Now in his 10th year at OU, he is recognized nationally as one of the best in the business, and the athletics department has surrounded him with facilities that give Sooner student-athletes the best opportunity to excel.

3	Jerry Schmidt has coached with teams that played in five national championship games. He has three national title rings from Oklahoma, Notre Dame and Florida.
4	Schmidt has worked with four Heisman winners, including Jason White (Oklahoma), Danny Wuerffel (Florida), Barry Sanders (Oklahoma State) and Tim Brown (Notre Dame).
24	Schmidt has coached 24 NFL first-round picks including OU's Adrian Peterson, Davin Joseph, Jammal Brown, Mark Clayton, Tommie Harris, Andre Woolfolk and Roy Williams.
36	During Schmidt's tenure in Norman 36 Sooners have been selected in the NFL Draft including eight first-round picks, 2007 NFL Rookie of the Year, Adrian Peterson, the latest.
38	No. 38 for the Dallas Cowboys and former Sooner standout, Roy Williams, donated $100,000 to establish a new weight room in Oklahoma's Everest Training Facility.

ALAN DAVIS

The Best in the Business

"Jerry Schmidt is Oklahoma's Director of Sports Enhancement. He worked under Tom Osborne at Nebraska, Lou Holtz at Notre Dame and Steve Spurrier at Florida, where he became buddies with the Gators' then-defensive coordinator, Bob Stoops.

"Schmidt made sure that Stoops' players were big and fast. Insiders will tell you he's probably the best in the business. The Sooners have played for three national titles since 2000.

"Almost to a man, the Sooners looked like they were cut out of marble. There were no guts hanging over belts. There were no skinny arms or pear-shaped frames. They were as soft as petrified trees. These guys looked like well-conditioned athletes."

EXPLOSIVE OFFENSE

Big Names, Big Results

Pass oriented? You could make that case. Numerous records for both passing and receiving have fallen over the last few years.

Run oriented? Maybe. After all, the single season rushing mark was set in 2004. Well, which is it, passing or running?

At Oklahoma, the answer is both. While most schools dream of balance, OU is balance. In 2007, the Sooners passed for 3,615 yards. They rushed for 2,670.

And that balance creates opportunity for some of the best-known names in all of college football. It is common to see the ball in the hands of 10-15 players during a game. Many stay involved to the detriment of none.

Under Coach Stoops, the Oklahoma offense, with its pro influence and varied formations, has produced:

QB	Two All-Americans, three Heisman finalists, one Heisman Trophy winner and OU's record holders in game, season and career passing yards.
RB	One Heisman finalist, one All-American, five 1,000-yard rushers, Oklahoma's single season rushing yards record holder and OU's No. 2 and No. 3 career rushers.
WR	Two All-Americans, one Biletnikoff Award finalist and OU's record holders in game, season and career receptions, receiving yards and touchdown receptions.
TE	One Mackey Award finalist and Oklahoma's record holder in touchdown receptions in a game (tied).
OL	Four All-Americans, one Outland Trophy winner and two Rimington Award finalists.

DOMINATING DEFENSE

AUSTON ENGLISH

Attacking Defense Built on Speed

Oklahoma's defense suffers from a bit of an identity crisis.

With a takeaway in 107 of Bob Stoops' 119 games and 30 interception or fumble returns for touchdowns during this coach's tenure, the defense has a reputation of, well, being a little offensive.

The Sooners' attack-style defense, long appreciated for its speed and aggressive attitude, is perhaps best known for its consistency. OU has ranked among the top 16 teams in the nation in total defense for seven of the last eight years.

Outstanding players have dominated the landscape. Twice in the last eight years, a Sooner has been named the best defensive player in the nation.

SOONER SPECIAL TEAMS

A strong case can be made that no program has played better on its special teams in recent years than Oklahoma. Time and again, the Sooners have blown games wide open with electric and innovative special teams play.

Bob Stoops' commitment to special teams performance is evidenced by the number of first-team players that participate on those units. The wisdom of that move, and the program's overall devotion to special teams play, is found in the staggering numbers that relate to every possible facet of the kicking and return games.

Why Oklahoma? Dusty Dvoracek, Chicago Bears

"The coaching staff impressed me more than any other I dealt with during the recruiting process. They really meant what they said. The best players really do get to play, no matter what. That's how you win championships. And the fans here are great. They root for us, but they care about us as people."

HEAD COACH BOB STOOPS

Winningest Active Coach in College Football

The kind of admiration Bob Stoops has achieved is the best kind. It's a by-product of the success his program has enjoyed and the manner in which he has conducted himself. Football observers from coast to coast have witnessed the renaissance authored by Stoops at Oklahoma and often proclaim the Sooner coach among the very best in the land. When Stoops arrived in Norman, OU had fallen on brief and uncharacteristic hard times. He has returned Oklahoma football to its rightful place among the elite, and there is no denying that he is the person most responsible for the turnaround. The pride has been restored and a nation has noticed.

Winningest active coaches with at least nine years as head coach:

HEAD COACH BOB STOOPS

Quotes on Coach Stoops

"This is a (Sooner) team that's going to contend for the National Championship as long as Bob Stoops wants to."

- John Saunders, ABC Sports

"He has brought us back to the pinnacle of college football. Bob is creating his own legend. He inherited a program with great tradition, and he's added to it."

- Barry Switzer, Former Oklahoma Head Coach

"In a sport in which icons are dropping annually from sight, and phenoms are forever heading to the NFL, Stoops is the closest thing to a budding legend in the NCAA."

- John Romano, St. Petersburg Times

"Bob Stoops is one of the first guys in the coaching profession that has ability to mix family along with coaching. About 15 years ago, you couldn't do that. People thought that was the wrong thing to do. So I admire coach Stoops in that every time I talk to him, something about family comes up. You have three kids to raise, a wife to take care of and a football team to coach. In that order."

- Urban Meyer, Head Coach, University of Florida

"Stoops' philosophy is at the same time unbending and liberating. He presides over players who are competitive and aggressive, but also respectful and talkative."

- David Barron, Houston Chronicle

STOOPS ON SIDELINE

1	The Sooners have spent 22 weeks ranked No. 1 under Coach Stoops. OU is tied with Notre Dame in first place in college football history for most weeks (95) ranked No. 1.
9	Oklahoma has played in bowl games in all nine seasons under Stoops. Six of the nine have been BCS bowls and three have been National Championship games.
24	Stoops has produced 24 All-Americans in his nine seasons in Norman including, 13 consensus selections. OU had a record seven All-Americans in 2003 and five in 2004.
36	During Stoops' tenure in Norman, 36 Sooners have been selected in the NFL Draft including eight first-round picks, 2007 NFL Rookie of the Year, Adrian Peterson, the latest.
98	Bob Stoops' Oklahoma Sooners strike fast and hard. OU has held double-digit leads in 98 of the team's 119 games, or 86 percent, since Stoops took over as head coach.

COACH STOOPS

Why Oklahoma? Malcolm Kelly, Washington Redskins

"I put Coach Stoops above everything else. He is very down to earth. He never acts like he is above everybody else or better than the next guy. All of the coaches here are great. This is home away from home, a family away from my family."

OU COACHING STAFF

167 Cumulative Years of Experience

In Bob Stoops' nine seasons at the University of Oklahoma, five of his assistant coaches have gone on to become head coaches at other I-A programs. It's not hard to gauge the quality of the Sooner staff or Stoops' ability to hire good people.

The beneficiaries are Oklahoma's players. In record numbers they have been honored and drafted into the professional ranks. And that has been true regardless of what position they play.

Identifying and recruiting talent, coaching talent to play at its peak and preparing players for life after college, whether it be in football or in the business world, nobody does it better than Oklahoma.

UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

Flagship Educational Institution of the Sooner State

The University of Oklahoma is experiencing a golden era in the history of a great institution. The quality of new students is soaring and donor confidence is at an all-time high. Over the last 11 years, OU's donor base has expanded at a staggering rate, moving from 17,000 to 108,000.

President David L. Boren has spurred significant changes that have resulted in a learning environment of the highest order. As a result, the state of Oklahoma enjoys resources that impact everything from medical science to the arts for many years to come.

The University of Oklahoma has long embraced the great tradition of Sooner athletics. With competitive facilities all located on the main campus, including several near the heart of the university, student-athletes and their classmates mingle comfortably in an environment that fosters an attitude of excellence, regardless of the endeavor.

What do you know about OU?

• OU ranks number one per capita among all public universities in the number of National Merit Scholars enrolled.

• OU has been recognized for its focus on the Freshman Year Experience according to a national study by the Policy Center on the First Year of College. The study recognizes OU's initiatives for first-year students and its commitment to put students first.

• The Princeton Review ranks OU among the best in the nation in terms of academic excellence and cost for students.

• OU has over a $1.5 billion impact annually on the state's economy each year. Over the past decade, research and sponsored programs expenditures at Oklahoma have more than doubled, and OU continues to set new records for funding for externally sponsored research.

• Just one year after launching a five-year, $50 million Campaign for Scholarship endowments, OU achieved its goal and has now passed the $110 million mark, allowing the university to award thousands of new scholarships and ensure that OU will remain affordable and keep open the door of opportunity for all qualified students.

• OU is one of only 25 public universities in America with an endowment above $1.1 billion and has quadrupled, increasing from 100 to 478, the number of endowed faculty positions in the past 13 years, demonstrating a strong commitment to excellence.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Preparing Leaders for Tomorrow

The recent Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium expansion and improvement included remodeled office space in the facility's north end. The largest piece of that project was the Prentice Gautt Academic Center. Some 35,000 square feet are dedicated to the academic pursuits of Sooner student-athletes.

Indeed, there is considerable emphasis on classroom performance at OU. The center staff has achievement as its focus, a fact that is reflected in a graduation rate that exceeds that of the general student body. In addition to its academic work, the staff assists in several life skills areas designed to enrich students in a broad range of tasks.

The Legacy of Prentice Gautt

The OU Academics Center that today's student-athletes use everyday now bears the name of the man who left an indelible legacy for Sooner Athletics and helped change a society in the process.

"It is appropriate that this center be named after Prentice Gautt," University of Oklahoma President David L. Boren said. "His personal values and character, along with his leadership as associate commissioner of the Big 12 Conference, continue to bring pride to his alma mater.

"His personal example of quiet courage, grace under pressure, and dedication to the university helped open the doors of opportunity for countless number of African-American and minority student-athletes who have followed him into collegiate athletics."

Sooners Big 12's Best in APR

Recent numbers from the NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) show that the Oklahoma football program is a prime example of accomplishing excellence not only on the field, but off the field as well.

Oklahoma led all Big 12 Conference institutions in the 2008 academic ranking that is used as a real-time assesment on how student-athletes perform in regards to eligbility, retention and graduation.

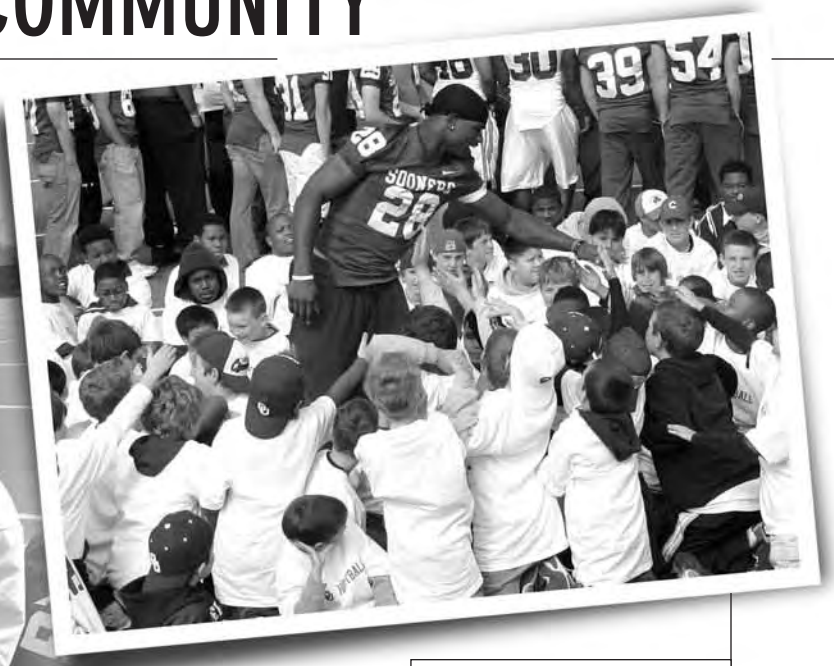
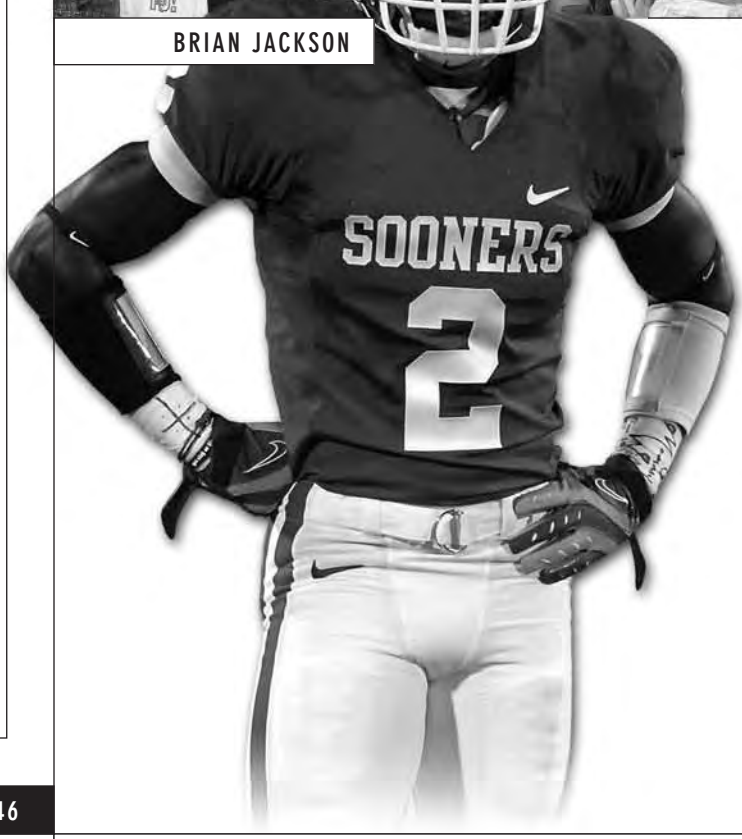
SOONERS IN THE COMMUNITY

JACOB GUTIERREZ



ADRIAN PETERSON

BRIAN JACKSON



Sooners Take an Active Role

OU lives by a clear and strong motto as it interacts with its student-athletes … Inspiring Champions for Today, Preparing Leaders for Tomorrow. As part of that promise, the Athletics Department and the football program take an active role in a number of community service projects.

Individually, football players serve with numerous groups. Two of their largest projects include a free football clinic for underprivileged youth and the distribution of food that is donated by Oklahoma fans at a designated home game.

Each year on the morning of the spring football game, the Sooners provide a complimentary football clinic for a select group of youth from throughout the central Oklahoma region.

The team also plays an active role in a food drive that takes place near the Thanksgiving holiday. OU fans donate food at a game and players help in the distribution the following Monday.

Oklahoma's student-athletes recognize that wearing the Crimson and Cream means representing a popular sports program and themselves as individuals. They are encouraged to respond to a public that adores them, while learning important lessons about making a positive impact in the lives of others in and around the community in which they live.

NIC HARRIS

Oklahoma's student-athletes are as visible off the field as they are when competing for the Sooners. Their significant efforts in the area of community service have been recognized not only on the local scene where they have the most impact, but also from national sources who recognize the scope of OU's outreach.

In each of the last two years, players from Oklahoma's football team have been named to the American Football Coaches Association's Good Works Team, an honor reserved for individuals who excel in their service to others.

Running back Jacob Gutierrez was named to the team in 2006, then safety Nic Harris made the squad in 2007.

Gutierrez, who in 2005 was the recipient of the Norman Youth Citizen Volunteer of the year, also was named a finalist for the John Wooden Citizenship Cup, a national award presented annually by the Atlanta-based Athletes for a Better World. Then, in 2006, Sooner defensive tackle Carl Pendleton also was tabbed a finalist for the honor.

Subsequently, Pendleton received post-graduate scholarships from the NCAA and the National Football Foundation, while also being named Big 12 Conference Sportsman of the Year. In addition, Pendleton won the Bobby Bowden Award, the highest student-athlete honor presented by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

As a group, OU's football players also host a Partners in Youth Camp prior to the annual spring football game, participate in local reading programs through the Norman public schools and make numerous visits to area hospitals.

Oklahoma's roster has long included players that understand what it means to be a role model and those individuals have so involved themselves in the community that it has captured the national spotlight.

NORMAN & OKLAHOMA CITY

GAMEDAY IN NORMAN

Norman - Home of the Sooners

Norman is an ever-changing city of more than 100,000 residents. Located in the heart of the state, it has grown to become the third largest city in Oklahoma. Despite its continuous growth, it has maintained the spirit and serenity of a small, close-knit community.

Since the Oklahoma Land Rush of 1889, Norman has grown into a popular and well-educated city. The spirit of Norman and its citizens is unwavering and uncompromising. While other towns were clamoring to become the state capital, Norman residents wanted to have the first state university. When the first OU president got off the train and saw a prairie, he saw opportunity.

As home to the state's premier educational institution, Norman boasts an excellent quality of life and is a city that thrives on and celebrates the diversity of its community.

Legendary University of Oklahoma football coach Barry Switzer called Norman "a university town with a championship spirit."

Norman continually exhibits its love for sports by hosting numerous local and national athletic events.

1	The Oklahoma City metropolitan area has a population of more than one million people. OKC is the largest city in the state and the 29th largest city in the nation.
3	Norman is the third largest city in the state with over 100,000 residents. Despite its growth, the city nurtures and maintains its small, college town atmosphere.
18	Located just 18 miles north of Norman, the state's capital, Oklahoma City, offers all the trappings of a large metropolitan area within an easy drive.
70°	The average annual temperature in Norman. The area enjoys a temperate climate with mild winters. Four distinct seasons with a warm spring and fall.
175	Norman boasts more than 175 restaurants including barbecue, Mexican, Oriental, Greek, Indian, Italian, Thai, seafood, health and natural foods.
196	Due to its central location, Norman is a quick 196-mile drive from Dallas. Roughly 20 percent of OU's students are from Texas and choose to come north.

THE STATE CAPITOL

Oklahoma City

Oklahoma City, the state's capital, is located just 18 miles north of the Norman campus. It was the first city settled in the Land Run of 1889 because of its position at the center of the state.

Oklahoma City offers a variety of attractions and activities different from any other place in the country.

Oklahoma City sprawls across 625 square miles of America's heartland. The city's metro population numbers more than one million -- a third of the entire state's population.

Oklahoma City has become a haven for exciting sports action. It recently was awarded the NBA's Sonics franchise, is home to three minor league teams and is the host of the NCAA College Softball World Series.

Located just southeast of downtown, Bricktown is Oklahoma City's entertainment and dining district. Restaurants with a total capacity of more than 4,000 seats, shopping, and a generous helping of turn-of-the-century charm has turned Bricktown into a hotspot for Oklahoma City nights.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

College Football at the Highest Level

The Big 12 led all conferences in 2007 with four teams ranked in the Top 10 in the final AP and Coaches polls, twice as many as any other league with multiple teams. It marks the second time in league history (2001) that the Big 12 finished the season with four teams ranked in the Top 10.

In 2007, Big 12 teams posted a 5-3 mark in bowl games, tying its all-time best record (2005, 02).

An all-time high eight Big 12 players earned consensus All-America recognition in 2007.

The Big 12 leads all conferences with five appearances in the BCS National Championship Game and was the only conference to place two teams in the Top 6 of both the final Associated Press and Coaches polls from 2001-04.

Media Credentials

Requests for media credentials for University of Oklahoma home games should be made online at SoonerSportsMedia.com. Only those requests submitted by the sports editor of a newspaper or the sports director for a radio or television station will be considered.

Priority is given to daily newspapers (by circulation), television stations and radio stations that program sports for more than half of their daily broadcast schedules. A credential does not guarantee a seat and access to the team bench area is prohibited at all times. Credentials include:

Press Box: Primary recipients are newspaper writers, television reporters and radio personnel. This pass gains access to the press box. Sideline access is only permitted for the last five minutes of the game.

Sideline: Primary recipients are photographers. Only photographers on assignment for accredited publications (not web sites) will be afforded credentials. Pass only gains access to the sideline (not the press box).

Combination: These are only for those individuals who require access to the press box and the sideline. Few are issued.

Season Credentials

Requests should be made at SoonerSportsMedia.com by August 10. Only those media who routinely cover OU games, practices and media conferences are eligible for season credentials.

Any media member who loses a season credential will automatically be moved to the single-game list for the following season. Media outlets who cannot provide names for passes for an entire season will be placed on the single-game list and should provide names on a weekly basis.

Single-Game Credentials

Requests must be made at least one week in advance of the contest. Any organization that requests a single-game credential then does not use it will not be granted another pass for the remainder of the season. No credentials will be granted after Thursday of game week.

OU-Texas Credentials

Those interested in covering the annual Oklahoma-Texas game at Dallas will need to make a separate request for credentials. Each school handles the requests from its regular pool of media. Aside from national media, only season credential holders are eligible.

Oklahoma will serve as the host school this year. Any media not based in Oklahoma or Texas should contact OU for credentials. OU-Texas credentials will be distributed to local media at the Tuesday media luncheon in Norman. Any credentials not claimed that day will be available the Friday before the game at a pickup location in Dallas (times and exact location TBA). No credentials will be mailed, but outlets willing to provide an overnight account number no later than Wednesday of game week may receive them in that manner.

Credential Pickup (OU Home Games)

Credentials may be picked up from the media relations office during the week or from media will call (Gate 2) at Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium on game day (see map on page 57). Photo identification is required for pickup. Each media representative must claim his or her pass. No group pickups are allowed.

Credential Requests

Credential requests for Oklahoma football season will only be accepted online at SoonerSportsMedia.com. Please visit the web site for complete instructions on submitting the online application form.

Pertinent media information, including forms, instructions and special media releases, are available online 24 hours a day. Approved media outlets also have access to OU's high-resolution image library for player and coaching staff action photos and mugs.

Parking Passes

Parking passes are in a limited supply and will be prioritized similar to the way credentials are issued. Most media parking is located in the Asp Ave. Parking Facility, located immediately west of the stadium, one half block north of the intersection at Lindsey and Asp (see map on page 57).

Daily Media Availability

Monday: Bob Stoops participates on the Big 12's Weekly Teleconference at 10:10 a.m.

Media Luncheon at 11:30 a.m., at the stadium. Coach Stoops' comments, beginning at noon, available via telephone to media only (contact Athletics Media Relations for more information). A few players also are available. All coaches and offensive players* who do not participate in the luncheon are available following practice.

Tuesday: All coaches^ and defensive players* are available following practice.

Wednesday: Coaching staff available following practice. No player availability.

Thursday, Friday & Sunday: No availability.

Saturday: Post-game availability only. Members of the OU Athletics Media Relations staff will escort media representatives to the appropriate locker room areas with five minutes remaining in the game. The Oklahoma locker room, home or away, is closed to the media at all times.

Head coach Bob Stoops and several Sooner players will be brought to a designated interview area. At home games, that area is the Big Red Room, located in the Switzer Center (first floor).

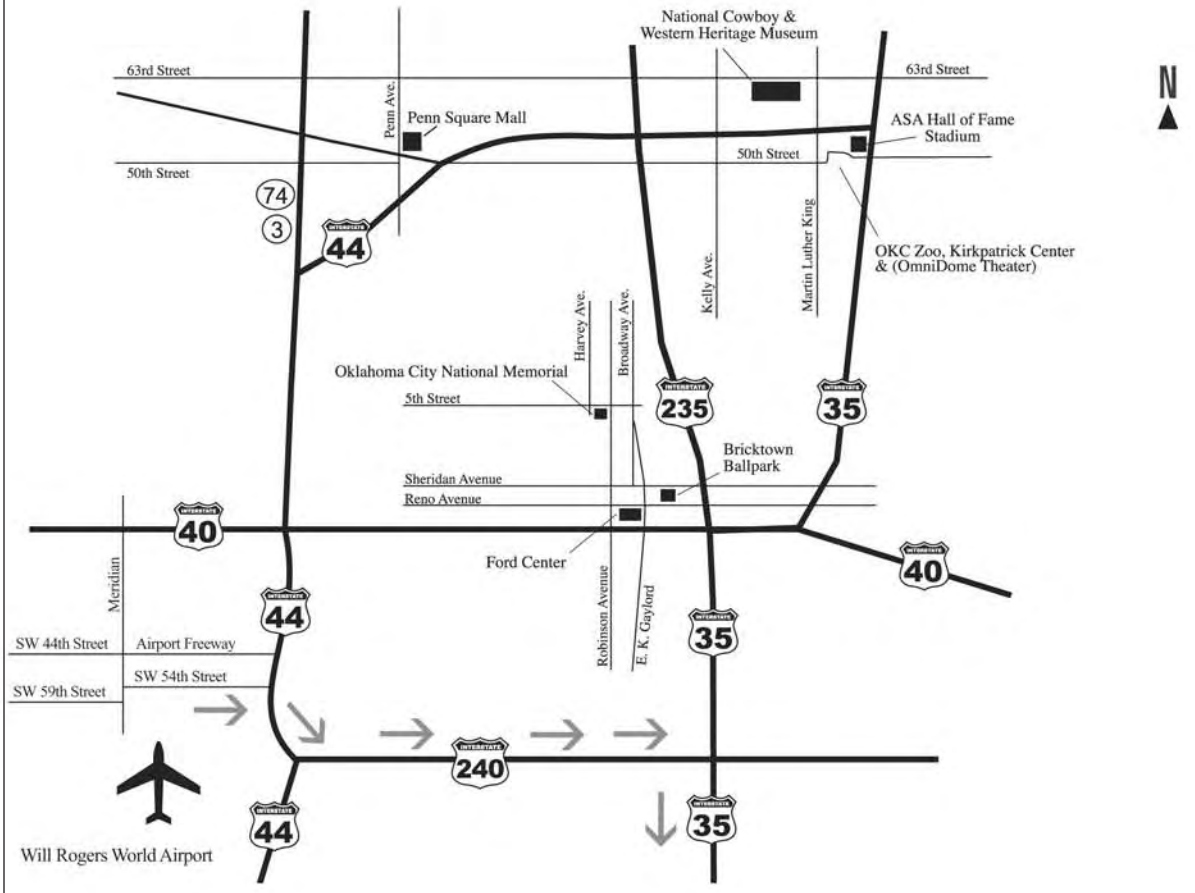
At the beginning of the fourth quarter, interview requests will be collected.

For games in Norman, the opposing head coach will meet with the media inside the opponent interview room, the SoonerVision studio (southwest corner, under the stadium grandstands). A representative from the OU Media Relations Office will be on hand to assist the media in finding this area. Interviews with the head coach and players from the visiting team will be based on the post-game policy of that institution.

 Some players have evening classes that could preclude them from post-practice interviews.*

^ Bob Stoops' weekly radio show takes place each Tuesday night during the season. Depending on the length of the workout, he may not be available for interviews after practice.

MAPS & DIRECTIONS



Directions from OKC Airport

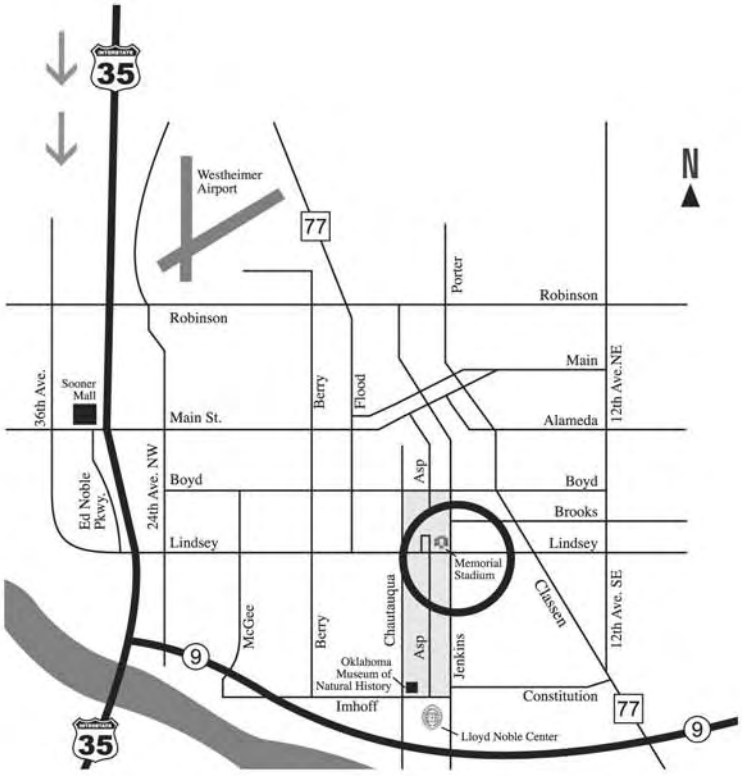
Follow directions from airport terminal to Interstate 44. Travel west on I-44 (towards Lawton). Merge to I-240 east. Take exit 4A south on Interstate 35. Norman is 17 miles south of the airport. Once in Norman, exit I-35 at Lindsey Street. Turn left (east) at the top of the ramp onto Lindsey. Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is located approximately three miles east of I-35 on the corner of Asp and Lindsey (circled on map to right).

Directions from Dallas/Ft. Worth

Travel north on Interstate 35 to Norman. Once in Norman, exit at Lindsey Street. Turn right (east) at the top of the ramp onto Lindsey. Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is located approximately three miles east of I-35 on the corner of Asp and Lindsey (circled on map to right).

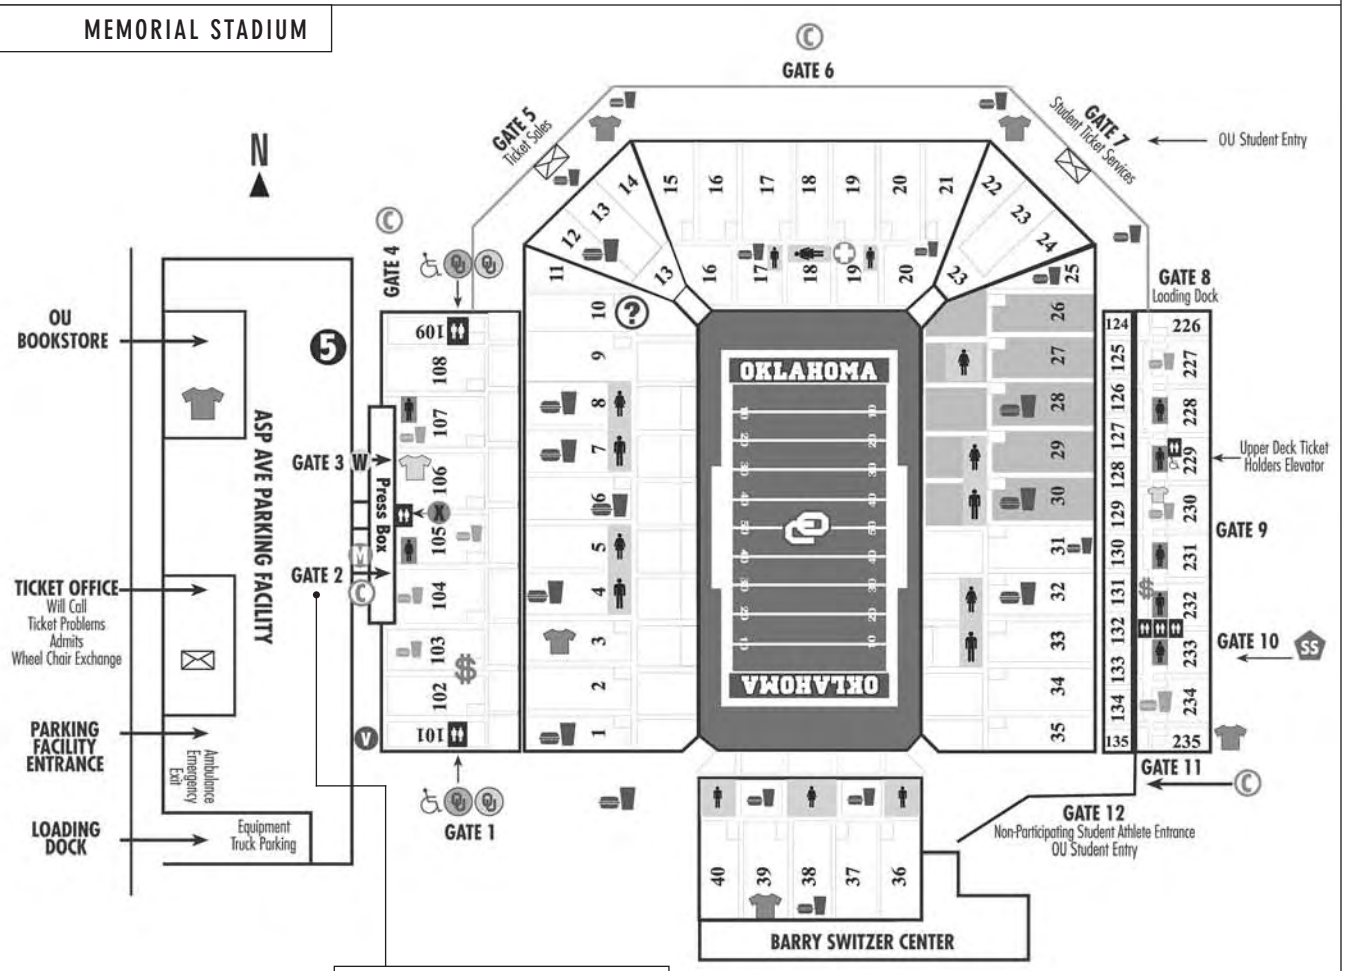
Return to OKC Airport

Drive I-35 north from Norman to I-240 west. Follow I-240 west to I-44 (I-240 automatically merges with I-44 just west of May Avenue). Take Exit 116B, Airport Road, exit on the left. Follow Airport Road west to Meridian Ave. Take the Meridian Avenue southbound exit and follow Meridian south approximately one mile to the airport.



MEMORIAL STADIUM

MEMORIAL STADIUM



Oklahoma Memorial Stadium

Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and, following its expansion in 2004, now ranks among the 15 largest college football stadiums in the nation.

With the expansion of Oklahoma Memorial Stadium to an official capacity of 82,112 and with every home game exceeding that capacity, Oklahoma set numerous attendance records in 2007. In fact, the 10 largest crowds in Memorial Stadium history have occured in the past few seasons.

Oklahoma's average attendance in 2007 for six home games was 84,858. OU ranked first in the Big 12 Conference and No. 9 in the nation in average attendance. Oklahoma ranked No. 4 in the nation in percent of stadium capacity filled for home games at 104 percent.

The largest crowd ever to watch a game in the history of the state of Oklahoma jammed Memorial Stadium on September 8, 2007. The Sooners stormed past rival Miami, 51-13, in front of 85,357 fans.

OU has compiled a 42-1 record at home (.977) under head coach Bob Stoops (1999-2007). Not coincidentally, those nine seasons all rank at the top of the list for average home attendance.

COACH BOB STOOPS

2008 SEASON OUTLOOK

Over the last eight seasons, Oklahoma has won five Big 12 Conference Football Championships ... with five different quarterbacks.

That fact alone carries plenty of intrigue, but it's really nothing more than a subplot to what is happening in Norman.

For a program to truly become a program, it must transcend any one person, a message head coach Bob Stoops, the recipient of much of the undesired credit, has preached consistently relative to Oklahoma's success during his tenure.

Stoops has seen four of his assistant coaches move on to head coaching jobs at major universities. He's witnessed 36 NFL draft choices, including eight of the first round variety, rise from the Sooner camp.

And yet the "program" keeps winning.

Since 2000, no college program can top Oklahoma's 90 victories. In Stoops' nine years, Oklahoma has won fewer than 10 games just two times. The five Big 12 crowns are three more than OU's closest competitor.

In 2008, with much of the cast responsible for last year's league title returning, OU, the first program to win two straight Big 12 Championships, will shoot for three in a row.

The Offense

Most of the returning players on this team reside on offense. That said, there is still the matter of replacing some key performers in the rushing and receiving corps.

Otherwise, this is an offense with a lot of experience and ability to produce. Sam Bradford returns at quarterback after one of the most surprisingly pleasant freshman seasons anyone can remember. He'll throw to a a group of receivers that features last season's top pass catcher, Juaquin Iglesias, and TE Jermaine Gresham; hand off to a backfield that combined for more than 1,300 yards on their own and toil behind a mammoth offensive line that returns seven of the eight players who were on last season's two-deep.

The message for that collection of players is to become more consistent. While the 2007 team ranked No. 5 in scoring offense (42.3), there is hope that the group can cash in a higher percentage of possessions and develop more dominance in imposing its will.

QUARTERBACKS

Sam Bradford's freshman season turned in to quite possibly the best freshman season for any quarterback. With uncanny accuracy, he set an NCAA frosh mark with 36 touchdown passes and led the nation in passing efficiency (176.5).

Bradford is back and so is the player who worked in support of him last season. Joey Halzle, a senior, completed 30-of-51 attempts for 454 yards and three touchdowns against just one interception.

During the signing period, OU added 6-5 Landry Jones, one of the highest rated prep quarterbacks in the nation.

RUNNING BACKS

For the second time in as many years Oklahoma loses a 1,000-yard rusher, but doesn't flinch.

DeMarco Murray missed the last three games of the season due to injury, but still ran for 764 yards and 13 touchdowns in his freshman season. The burner scorched Utah State for a 92-yard touchdown run and returned two kickoffs for TDs, a 91-yarder against Baylor and an 81-yarder against Tulsa.

Chris Brown, a junior, continued as Mr. Dependable, rolling up 611 yards. He scored nine touchdowns and proved to be OU's most effective ball carrier in short-yardage situations. He rushed 25 times on third down and was successful on 21 of those with a first down and/or touchdown.

Both Murray and Brown missed spring practices while recuperating from surgery, opening the door for talented and versatile Mossis Madu. He rushed 40 times for 232 yards (5.8./carry) last season and could be a dangerous receiver.

Signing day also yielded a couple players who might be ready to go from day one. Both Jermie Calhoun and Justin Johnson were decorated prep players and both have physical qualities that should serve them well on the college level.

The fullback position endured the loss of Ian Pleasant and Dane Zaslaw, but is still well-stocked. Brody Eldridge is listed as a tight end, but often lines up at H-back and was so highly regarded as a blocker that he earned first-team All-Big 12 fullback honors last season even though he had no rushing attempts.

Another candidate is Matt Clapp, who redshirted last season after playing in his freshman campaign. With the bulk he added last season and his athletic ability, coaches expect Clapp to contribute in a significant way.

RECEIVERS

For the definition of "breakout season" see Juaquin Iglesias, 2007. The Killeen, Texas, native entered last season with 60 career receptions for 804 yards through two seasons. Then, as a junior, he led Oklahoma with 68 grabs for 907 yards and five touchdowns.

Iglesias also emerged as one of the nation's most dangerous kick returners and rushed eight times for a 10.9-yard average.

He'll likely have one of the outside spots. Other candidates include Quentin Chaney, Adron Tennell and Brandon Caleb.

Chaney, a senior, had the best game of his career in the Fiesta Bowl and his four-catch, 129-yard outing is cause for optimism.

Tennell was off to a good start last season with a 22.8-yard per catch average, but suffered a season-ending knee injury at Texas Tech.

Caleb also missed nearly all of last season due to injury, but he received an injury hardship ruling to have his sophmore year restored and coaches are excited to watch his progress.

A pair of redshirts will be in the mix, too, in Tyler Stradford and Corey Wilson.

In the slot, watch for speedy Manuel Johnson, a senior, who had 31 grabs last season for 448 yards.

Oklahoma's top 10 recruiting class was perhaps rated the highest at the receiver position with three big and physical players joining the roster. It is not difficult to envision those three, Joshua Jarboe, Dejuan Miller and Jameel Owens, on the field early in their careers.

At tight end, OU welcomes back talented Jermaine Gresham, who became a touchdown reception as a sophomore. His 11 TD grabs exceeded the best total ever turned in by a Sooner tight end. The swift big man is a nightmarish match-up.

Eldridge will play at the tight end spot as will Eric Mensik, who figures to see the most extensive action of his career.

DEMARCO MURRAY

OFFENSIVE LINE

A quick glance at the depth chart would seemingly leave the Oklahoma coaches gushing, but that's not the case.

While OU returns seven of eight from last season's two-deep, including all five starters, the Sooner coaches sing a recurring theme -- consistency. They know that the success of the aerial game depends on the ability to establish the rushing attack, and they want more productivity in that area.

The numbers on which the team will build are pretty impressive. OU quarterbacks dropped into the pocket 415 times last season and were sacked just 14 times. In addition, the team averaged 190.7 yards on the ground while throwing for 258.2.

Phil Loadholt, at 6-8 the tallest starter in OU history, will line up at left tackle, while Trent Williams and Branndon Braxton will likely battle again for the right tackle spot.

Left guard Duke Robinson was a consensus All-American last season and right guard Brandon Walker out-graded the other four starters on the coaches' charts. The returning center is the venerable Jon Cooper, whose string of 29 consecutive starts is the longest on the team.

In many cases, the backups can't be considered backups. Most are good enough to challenge for starting spots. Among the tackles are Cory Brandon, redshirt freshman Donald Stephenson and incoming freshmen Stephen Good and Britt Mitchell.

At guard, those in the mix include Brian Simmons and redshirt freshmen Jason Hannan and Alex Williams.

The center reserves will be Hannan and incoming freshman Ben Habern.

The line returns a number of starters, but the coaches talk about competition in the trenches probably as much as any other position on the team. It's obvious that the one thing that may outweigh the experience on the line is its depth. The resulting challenges for playing time should make things interesting.

The Defense

Things are a little different than what they appeared to be even as late as early January. Graduation and early professional departures gave the spring some added meaning in identifying players who will step into more prominent roles.

Across the front four, the Sooners appear set with experience and depth. The questions loom at linebacker and in the secondary where the early departures and graduation hit hardest. New players who joined the team in August will have opportunities for immediate playing time.

DEFENSIVE LINE

At defensive end, Oklahoma is one better than it might have been since a sixth year was granted to John Williams. Now comes the hard part -- battling back from Achilles' tendon surgery to regain the form that led him to start three of the first four games in 2007.

If Williams can get back, he'll be teamed with some good ones. Auston English, No. 15 in the nation last season with 9.5 sacks, returns along with Jeremy Beal and Alan Davis, both of whom have previous starting experience, and Pryce Macon, who has played in a reserve role.

The list of newcomers has those around the program excited, too, with Frank Alexander and Jontae Bumpus getting their first shot at live action along with true freshmen David King and R.J. Washington.

Alexander was impressive in his redshirt season, while Bumpus spent 2007 recuperating from pre-season surgery.

AUSTON ENGLISH

NIC HARRIS

LINEBACKERS
The Sooners will re-tool at linebacker and introduce some new faces. The most experienced returnee is Ryan Reynolds, the starter on the weak side last season, but now a candidate for the middle position. Lamont Robinson was a reserve at middle linebacker last season and also will vie for the playing time.

On the weak side, players who will get a look include returnees Brandon Crow, who played last season on special teams, 2007 redshirt Travis Lewis and incoming freshman Daniel Franklin.

The strong side will feature competition among transplanted safety Keenan Clayton, who was a starter in 2006, and junior college signee J.R. Bryant.

Two players who figure to get snaps on both the strong and weak sides include redshirt freshman Austin Box and junior college transfer Mike Balogun.

DEFENSIVE BACKS
Like linebacker, the secondary will feature a number of new starters. That's not to say the defensive backfield is devoid of experience.

Nic Harris will be back for his third season as a starter after getting the nod in all 14 games of the 2007 season at strong safety and Lendy Holmes is back after playing extensively as a corner and nickel.

Harris will likely hold down the strong safety and nickel positions with junior college transfer David Sims and redshirt freshman Sam Proctor in pursuit.

Holmes will get a look at free safety along with redshirt freshman Desmond Jackson.

The field corners include Dominque Franks, who started the Fiesta Bowl, and Jonathan Nelson, while the boundary side will include sophomore Brian Jackson and redshirt freshman Jamell Fleming.

Newcomer Joseph Iboloye will compete for one of the safety spots, but coaches want a chance to work him out before determining which one.

The Special Teams
There won't be much need for a program to identify the key special teams personnel. With one exception, they're all the same from a year ago when the special teams logged a stellar season.

KICKER
Garrett Hartley was a fixture for the previous four seasons. A Groza Award finalist as a junior, he left OU as one of the most productive kickers in school history.

Hartley excelled in the most recognizable categories, field goals and points after touchdown, but those who witnessed his career know the attribute that may be missed most is in the area of kickoffs.

Prior to his senior season, the college kickoff location was moved back from the 35 to the 30, but Hartley showed no ill effects. He still booted 29 touchbacks compared to only two by OU opponents.

Those who will compete for the kicking job include redshirt freshmen Jimmy Stevens and Matthew Moreland and true freshman Tress Way.

PUNTER
Mike Knall improved as a junior, so much so that he won the starting job in game 10. With an average of 43.7 yards and an impressive hang time, Knall fits the bill.

He's also adept at pinning opponents deep. Last season, he dropped down six of 24 punts inside the 20 with only two touchbacks.

RETURNERS
Oklahoma led the nation in kickoff returns last season and will return its two most lethal, Juaquin Iglesias and DeMarco Murray.

Reggie Smith must be replaced as the primary punt returner, but Dominque Franks is a solid candidate.

Look for others to get a shot as the spring provided ample opportunity to audition several.

DEEP SNAPPER
Derek Shaw has had the job for the last two seasons and the coaching staff also likes his backup, Kyle Johnson.

HOLDER
Hays McEachern had the job the last two seasons, but wrapped up his eligibility and will be missed. The Sooners reviewed replacements during spring drills and those candidates will get a closer look in preseason practices.

OPPONENT INFORMATION

Oklahoma will play its third consecutive 12-game regular-season schedule in 2008, hosting six of those contests in Norman. Highlighting the slate are a pair of firsts -- the first ever meeting with the University of Cincinnati and the Sooners' first ever trip to Seattle, Wash., to take on the University of Washington. The matchup with Texas at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas is set for the second Saturday in October while the Bedlam Game against Oklahoma State remains over the Thanksgiving weekend. Big 12 Conference North opponents switch as Oklahoma takes on Kansas and Nebraska in Norman and travels to Manhattan, Kan., to face Kansas State.

HEAD COACH

BOB STOOPS

HEAD COACH | 10TH SEASON | 97-22 (.815) RECORD AT OKLAHOMA

History is one tough customer at Oklahoma. The tradition, so rich and so long-standing, is as daunting as it is impressive. To be among the best at Oklahoma is to be among the best in college football...

Such dramatics are lost on Bob Stoops. The Sooner head coach befriended the would-be albatross of OU's successful past from his first day on campus and remains steadfastly focused on tomorrow and the championship it holds.

It falls then to long-time observers and experts of the game to define Stoops' impact. Rarely have the pundits had it so easy.

That was true again in 2007. Stoops became the first coach in Big 12 history to place back-to-back conference titles in his trophy case and was one of several teams, in a year of parity, to contend for the national title.

Many called it Stoops' best coaching job, a mouthful of compliment considering the star-studded nature of his accomplishments at OU.

Under Stoops, Oklahoma has won 97 games; the 2000 national championship; spent 87 consecutive weeks in the national rankings; played in nine bowl games, six of the BCS variety; taken part in three national championship games and captured five Big 12 crowns. On a playing field leveled by scholarship limits and parity, this era stares down the Oklahoma standard and does not blink.

The achievement is so brilliant that it dulls the memory of what Stoops inherited. When he arrived in Norman, the proud Sooner program was five years removed from a winning record, four from a postseason appearance. Those atypical days of angst are so forgotten now that they could be mentioned with the Land Rush and Dust Bowl.

Stoops has been characterized as a grounded family man, brilliant big-game coach, relentless recruiter, strong leader and a person with uncommon perspective.

His success emanates from a disciplined style true to his roots in the Steel Valley of Ohio, but he is far from inflexible. The principles to which he holds are the tried and true axioms of the sport ... mixed with cutting-edge strategy and an appreciation for the calculated risk.

During his time, OU has produced record-setting passers and receivers, three 1,000-yard rushers, suffocating defense and special teams units that rank among the most dynamic in the land. The Sooners have been nothing if not versatile.

The son of a coach, Stoops was a four-year starter at Iowa. He began his coaching career in 1983 as a volunteer in the Hawkeye program under Hayden Fry, working through the ranks until he became co-defensive coordinator at Kansas State (1991-95). There he played a key role in one of the most impressive turnarounds in college football history.

Eventually, he left for Florida and a three-year stint as Steve Spurrier's defensive coordinator. In 1996, he was part of a national championship team. It was with the Gators that the spotlight found Stoops and made him one of the hottest names in the profession. His hiring at Oklahoma was one for the ages.

Coaching Accomplishments

• Stoops is 97-22 overall, 64-13 vs. the Big 12, 35-9 vs. the Big 12 South, 28-4 vs. the Big 12 North, 5-1 in the Big 12 title game, 33-9 vs. non-conference opponents, 54-2 at home, 27-11 on the road, 15-9 on neutral fields, 27-11 vs. ranked opponents, 4-5 in bowls, 3-4 in January bowls and 2-4 in BCS games.

• OU has set or tied more than 170 school records under Stoops, not including bowl bests and marks specific to a particular position (i.e., receptions by a running back). Among those marks under Stoops are passing for a game, season and career; receiving for a game, season and career; and rushing for a season.

THE STOOPS FAMILY

• Stoops has authored two of the seven longest winning streaks in Oklahoma history. His 2000 and 2001 teams won 20 straight, while the 2002 and 2003 teams reeled off 14 in a row. Those victories all came against I-A opponents.

• OU won the 2000 national championship, played for two more and captured six Big 12 South crowns and five Big 12 titles. Oklahoma has spent 22 weeks at No. 1.

• An OU player has finished among the top seven in the Heisman voting five times: Adrian Peterson (No. 2 in 2004), Jason White (No. 3 in 2004), Jason White (No. 1 in 2003), Roy Williams (No. 7 in 2001) and Josh Heupel (No. 2 in 2000).

• OU has had a double-digit lead in 98 of Stoops' 119 games.

• Oklahoma has played in nine bowl games. Never had an OU coach taken even his first three teams to bowls. Prior to Stoops' arrival, OU had gone four straight years without a bowl, and had not played in one of what is now a BCS game since the 1988 Orange Bowl (1987 season). Stoops, in his second season, led OU to the 2001 Orange Bowl (2000 season).

• Under Stoops, OU has produced 24 All-Americans; two AP Players of the Year (Heupel, White); two Nagurski Award winners (Williams, Derrick Strait); two Thorpe Award winners (Williams, Strait); two Butkus Award winners (Rocky Calmus, Teddy Lehman); one Bednarik Award winner (Lehman); one Lombardi Award winner (Tommie Harris); one Walter Camp winner (Heupel); two O'Brien Award winners (White twice); a Maxwell Award winner (White); a Unitas Award winner (White); an Outland Trophy winner (Jammal Brown) and one Mosi Tatupu Award winner (J.T. Thatcher).

• OU has had a Butkus finalist in four of the last seven years and a Lombardi finalist in three of the last six. The Sooners also have had finalists for the Biletnikoff, Groza, Guy, Hendricks, Mackey and Doak Walker awards.

• In 1996 and 1997, his Florida defense scored eight touchdowns. The 1996 Gators won the national championship.

• During his final four seasons in Manhattan, Kansas State posted a 35-12 record and played in three bowl games.

• He assisted K-State to its first 10-win season with a defense that allowed seven or fewer points in six games, including three shutouts. In 1995, his unit led the nation in total defense (250.8 ypg) with four defensive backs named All-Big Eight.

Coaching Accomplishments

• Helped 2007 OU defense to the No. 3 Big 12 defensive pass efficiency ranking. OU was second in the conference with 19 interceptions. Three DBs (Nic Harris, Reggie Smith, D.J. Wolfe) received first-team All-Big 12 honors.

• In 2006, OU led the Big 12 and ranked No. 13 nationally in pass efficiency defense. All five players who started in the secondary received some kind of all-conference recognition.

• Moved to the secondary in 2005. D.J. Wolfe and Reggie Smith both earned postseason honors. The Sooners ranked No. 21 nationally in passing efficiency defense. In Big 12 games, OU ranked No. 1 in completion percentage defense, No. 2 in passing efficiency defense and No. 3 in passing yardage allowed.

• OU defensive backs had more interceptions in 11 games of 2005 than in 13 games of 2004.

• Wright's 2004 DE rotation of Dan Cody, Jonathan Jackson and Larry Birdine ranked No. 1, 2 and 3, respectively, in sacks among Big 12 players.

• Also the special teams coordinator in 2004, Wright saw OU rank No. 1 in the Big 12 in kickoff coverage (15.7 ypr.), while giving opponents an average of just 4.2 yards on 21 attempts.

• In 2003, his ends piled up 35 TFL, 20 sacks and 59 hurries. In '02, the DEs accounted for nearly half of the team's sacks. Jimmy Wilkerson was All-Big 12 for the second straight year. In '01, the ends combined for 21 tackles for loss, including 18 by Wilkerson.

• Under Wright's guidance, All-Big 12 receiver Mike Adams broke every UT record in 1996.

• In 1991, his secondary ranked No. 1 in the nation in pass efficiency defense.

• Developed freshman Texas K Phil Dawson, a first team All-SWC honoree and Groza semifinalist, into the top-ranked kicker in the nation.

• His 1995 receiving unit was the best in the SWC when it averaged 16.8 yards per catch (107 catches for 1,796 yards and 10 TD). It featured first team All-SWC performer Mike Adams, the SWC's leading receiver.

• Helped lead North Texas to a 1983 conference crown and the I-AA playoffs.

• Was on the coaching staff that led Texas A&I to the 1979 Division II national title.

KEVIN WILSON

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/TIGHT ENDS/FULLBACKS | SEVENTH SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Oversaw the 2007 offense that led the nation in passing efficiency. Scoring offense was second in the conference while ranking No. 5 nationally with 42.3 points per game. OU topped the 40-point mark eight times. Total offense ranked No. 19 nationally. All three regular tight ends (Eldridge, Finley, Gresham) received Big 12 honors.

• The 2006 offense was balanced with 2,480 rushing yards and 2,682 passing yards. Three different running backs logged 100-yard games and QB Paul Thompson put up numbers that ranked among the top 10 in school history for passing yards, touchdown passes, and completion percentage. OU ranked No. 19 nationally in scoring offense; No. 17 in rushing offense.

• The 2005 line produced consensus All-Big 12 pick Davin Joseph as Adrian Peterson again eclipsed 1,000 rushing yards. Three freshmen were integrated as starters.

• In 2004, the line, featuring Outland winner Jammal Brown and Walter Camp All-American and Rimington Award finalist Vince Carter, cleared the way for Heisman runner-up Adrian Peterson's 1,925 rushing yards while allowing a Big 12-low nine sacks.

• The 2004 Sooners, featuring Wes Sims, a sixth-round draft choice by the Chargers, and All-Big 12 pick Joseph, were No. 8 in total offense and averaged 34.8 points.

• The 2003 team ranked No. 3 nationally with 42.9 points/game and No. 19 with 439.4 yards of total offense/game.

• In 2002, the line had four honorees as Quentin Griffin fell 13 yards shy of OU's season rushing record.

• As Northwestern's offensive coordinator, the 2001 Wildcats led the Big 10 in total offense and QB Zac Kustok was conference leader in that same category.

• In 2000, Northwestern set 25 school marks while ranking No. 3 nationally in total offense. The co-Big Ten champs were led by Damian Anderson, who rushed for a Big Ten record 193.6 yards per game.

• Finalist for the 2000 Broyles Award.

• Has helped produce 14 1,000-yard rushers. At OU, both Peterson (1,925 yards in 2004, 1,024 in 2005) and Griffin (1,884 yards in 2002) worked under Wilson.

Coaching Accomplishments

• Three different OU backs eclipsed the 500-yard mark, led by senior Allen Patrick with 1,0097 yards. Two logged 100-yard games. DeMarco Murray was a Freshman All-American. OU rushed for 190.7 yards per game.

• In 2006, three different OU running backs logged 100-yard games, including true freshman Chris Brown, as the team piled up 177.4 rushing yards per game.

• In 2005, he coached his third 1,000-yard rusher and saw two different backs log 100-yard games for the second straight season.

• In 2004, coached his second 1,000-yard rusher in the last three years in Adrian Peterson. Peterson set a school season record and NCAA freshman rushing record with 1,925 yards.

• Also tutored Kejuan Jones, who rushed for more than 2,000 yards during his career.

• Adept at securing the ball, Gundy's 2004 backs logged 48 receptions for 377 yards and rarely lost a fumble (OU lost only nine as a team).

• Coached 2003 OU backs to 1,896 yards. The backfield hauled in 54 passes for three TD.

• In 2003, Oklahoma's running backs were charged with just two fumbles lost.

• Coached Quentin Griffin, who finished his career as the No. 2 rusher in Sooner history. In 2002, he gained 1,884 yards and ranked No. 6 in the nation with 134.6 yards per game. Griffin, a consensus All-Big 12 first team selection, became the first Sooner to surpass 1,000 yards since 1998 and also finished his career as the school's second leading receiver. He caught one pass in an OU record 29 consecutive games.

• No OU back lost a fumble in 2002.

• OU backs fumbled just twice during the 2001 season, all in the first three games.

• In 2000, OU backs produced 32 rushing TDs, up from 15 in 1999. First team All-Big 12 Quentin Griffin scored 16 of those, second most in the conference. His six TDs against Texas set a Sooner record.

JAY NORVELL

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/RECEIVERS | FIRST SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• In 2006, Nebraska offense was one of just two schools to rank in the top 25 in rushing offense, passing offense, total offense and scoring offense.

• Under his direction, Nebraska quarterback Zac Taylor set nine school records and was named the 2006 Big 12 Conference Offensive Player of the Year.

• In his addition to his duties coaching the quarterbacks and coordinating the offense, Norvell also directed the Huskers' Elite Quaterback Camp and had oversight responsiblity for Nebraska's video operations.

• Coached the Oakland Raiders tight ends in 2002, a year that saw the Raiders feature the most prolific offense in the National Football League.

• Tutored All-Pro receiver Marvin Harrison while with the Indianapolis Colts. In 2002, Harrison became the only player in league history to have four consecutive 100-catch seasons. While he was coached by Norvell, Harrison had 385 receptions for 5,376 yards and 48 touchdowns.

• Under Norvell, the Iowa State passing attack improved by nearly 100 yards per game in 1997, when wideout Ty Watley led the Big 12 with 827 receiving yards.

• Helped lead Wisconsin to a Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl berth against UCLA in 1993. Wisconsin finished the season with a 10-1-1 record and No. 6 final national ranking.

Prominent Pupils

JOSH HEUPEL

QUARTERBACKS | FOURTH SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• In 2007, Heupel coached redshirt freshman Sam Bradford, who led the nation in passing efficiency with a rating of 176.5 and set an NCAA freshman record with 36 touchdown passes. Bradford was named to four All-America freshman teams and was a finalist for the Manning Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top quarterback.

• Tutored Paul Thompson, who, after finding out just one day before fall camp that he would play quarterback, piloted OU to an 11-3 mark in 2006. Thompson put up numbers on the season that rank among OU's top 10 for passing yards, touchdown passes and completion percentage.

• After spending one season as tight ends coach at Arizona, he returned to his alma mater late in the 2005 campaign and was on the staff to coach in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl victory over Oregon.

• Coached the tight ends at Arizona in 2005. The top two combined for 31 receptions for 346 yards and eight touchdowns.

• Arizona tight end Brad Wood led the Wildcats with six touchdowns. That figure represented the most receiving TDs in a single season since Bobby Wade hauled in eight for UA in 2002.

• Arizona handed then No. 7 UCLA its first loss of the season by a score of 52-14 at Tucson.

• Helped coach the Oklahoma Sooners to the 2004 national championship game (Sugar Bowl) as a graduate assistant.

• Founded The 14 Foundation, a non-profit organization that serves underprivileged children throughout the state of Oklahoma.

Accomplishments as a Player

• 2000 Heisman Trophy runner-up.

• 2000 Walter Camp Award winner.

• Associated Press Player of the Year, 2000.

• CBS Player of the Year, 2000.

• Led Sooners to 2000 national championship over Florida State in Orange Bowl.

• OU's first consensus All-America quarterback, and first Oklahoma QB since 1971 to earn All-America honors.

• Eighty percent winning percentage as OU quarterback with a 20-5 mark.

• Passed for 7,456 yards and 53 touchdowns in career.

• Oklahoma career top three in passing yards, completions and touchdown passes.

• 2001 NFL draft, sixth round, Miami Dolphins.

JAMES PATTON

OFFENSIVE LINE | THIRD SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• His 2007 line gave up just 14 sacks on the year, rank No. 5 nationally. With an average of 1.0 sacks per game, the line broke the school record of 1.21 per game set in 2006. Five linemen received Big 12 honors. It was an impressive year, given the fact that seven of the eight players on the two-deep were underclassmen.

• His first OU line included just one senior, yet helped OU to 177.4 rushing yards/game, while surrendering a Big 12-low 1.21 sacks/game (No. 11 nationally). Three different running backs had 100-yard games.

• The 2005 Northwestern team advanced to the Sun Bowl. The offense was ranked No. 4 nationally in total yards (500.3), No. 7 in passing offense (306.8), No. 16 in turnover margin (+.75), No. 26 in rushing offense (193.4) and No. 28 in scoring offense (33.9).

• The 2005 team featured QB Brett Basanez, who ranked No. 3 in the nation in total offense, while freshman RB Tyrell Sutton ranked No. 8 in rushing yards per game and No. 16 in points per game. WR Shaun Herbert was No. 20 in receptions per game.

• The 2005 team gave up just 11 sacks in 512 passing attempts on the season despite returning only one starter from the previous season.

• Northwestern had at least one 1,200-yard rusher and one of the nation's top 30 ground gainers each year from 2002-2005.

• In 2000, Northwestern played Nebraska at the Alamo Bowl. That Wildcat team ranked No. 3 in the NCAA in total offense.

• Every senior lineman Patton coached at Northwestern made it to the NFL.

• In 1998, he helped coach a Miami (Ohio) team that posted a 10-1 mark.

• Coached with OU offensive coordinator Kevin Wilson at both Miami (Ohio) and Northwestern.

Accomplishments as a Player

• A four-year letterman at Miami (Ohio).

• Had 45 career catches for 504 yards and one TD, including 16 catches for 166 yards as a senior.

• Named a captain his senior year and earned first team All-Mid American Conference honors.

Coaching Accomplishments

• Returned the majority of his group in 2007 which resulted in the No. 17 rushing defense in the nation, third in the Big 12. His interior linemen accounted for nine sacks and 22 tackles for a loss. Coached the Big 12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year in Gerald McCoy.

• Had one of his least experienced groups in 2006, but the defensive interior was strong. OU was second in the Big 12 and No. 16 nationally against the rush.

• The 2005 season was another stellar campaign for OU's defensive interior. Dusty Dvoracek was a consensus All-Big 12 selection after leading the nation's DTs in tackles for loss with 19. The Sooners ranked No. 4 in rushing defense.

• Despite losing a pair of All-Americans and featuring one transfer and two freshmen in the rotation in 2004, he crafted a defensive interior that showed perhaps more improvement than any area on the team during the course of the season.

• In 2003 he coached Tommie Harris, the winner of the Rotary Lombardi Award and a consensus All-American. Harris also was a finalist for the Nagurski and Bednarik awards. He also coached All-Big 12 DT Dusty Dvoracek in 2003.

• OU's interior linemen had 32 tackles for loss and 15 sacks in 2003.

• Two of his players, Tommie Harris and Kory Klein, earned All-Big 12 honors in 2001.

• In 2000, he had four defensive linemen selected to All-Big 12 teams including first team selection Ryan Fisher.

Accomplishments as a Player

• A first-round pick (14th overall) of the Miami Dolphins where he played five seasons. He helped the Dolphins post a 48-31 record, make two playoff appearances and advance to the 1985 Super Bowl. Shipp was the Dolphins' leading tackler (79) in 1987 and finished his career in Miami with 231 tackles.

• Played one season with the Los Angeles Raiders (1988).

• A standout linebacker at the University of Oklahoma, he starred on Sooner squads that posted a combined 33-14-1 record, won two bowl games and captured the 1980 Big Eight Championship.

• Earned all-conference honors as a junior and senior, and was selected as an All-American by Football News following his junior campaign.

• In the 1982 border clash with Texas, Shipp was a one-man wrecking crew with 23 tackles, an OU single-game record.

• Totaled 489 total tackles in his career which stands second on the OU list for career tackles. Also owns the single-season record for tackles (189) during his sophomore campaign in 1981.

CHRIS WILSON

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/DEFENSIVE ENDS | FOURTH SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Helped the OU defense to a conference-leading 32 sacks, 15 of which came from his ends. Sophomore DE Auston English ranked No. 15 nationally in sacks despite missing three games en route to being named first team All Big 12. His unit also forced four fumbles on the year.

• His 2006 ends logged 25.5 tackles for loss, including 10 sacks. They also knocked down seven passes.

• With his top returning starter (Larry Birdine) lost in August and one of his budding stars (John Williams) sidelined in the opener by injuries, he still coached the defensive ends to a brilliant season in 2005 at Oklahoma. C.J. Ah You was named Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year and MVP of the Holiday Bowl, and Calvin Thibodeaux captured postseason honors while leading the team with 10 sacks.

• Colorado ranked No. 15 nationally and No. 2 in the Big 12 with 33 sacks in 2004.

• The Buffaloes were the Big 12 North champions three times during his tenure.

• Coached on the Illinois State squad that captured the Gateway Conference title and advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA semifinals in 1999. That season marked the only time that the Redbirds accomplished those feats.

Accomplishments as a Player

• A four-year letterman at Oklahoma between 1988-1991, he recorded 311 tackles, 18th-best all-time and 11th-best for an OU linebacker.

• Was on the 1991 Butkus Award watch list.

• Third team All-America selection as a junior by The Football News.

• His three fumble recoveries as a senior ties for the OU single-season record by a linebacker.

• His 12 career pass deflections ranks seventh all-time by a linebacker at OU.

• Top OU tackler (eight) in 1991 Gator Bowl.

• All-Big Eight second team three times.

• Drafted in the 12th round by the Chicago Bears in 1992.

Oklahoma Athletics Sports Medicine

The University of Oklahoma has a rich five-decade history of setting a standard for sports medicine care, a tradition that continues today.

Head Athletic Trainer Scott Anderson, his staff and the team physicians comprise the professional staff. Anderson was named 2005 Trainer of the Year by the National Athletics Trainers' Association and 2004 Trainer of the Year by the All-American Football Foundation.

Brock Schnebel, M.D., Head Team Physician for the 2000 United States Olympic Team, directs OU's physician staff. Don McGinnis, M.D., serves an Olympic Team assignment in addition to his responsibilities with the Oklahoma Athletics Department.

E. Randy Eichner, M.D., Team Internist, is internationally recognized for his expertise in medicine issues related to sports. Martin Tippie, M.D., completes the Sooners' primary physician staff.

The state-of-the-art Henry J. Freede Sports Medicine Complex in the Barry Switzer Center provides a convenient location for the Sooners to receive their care.

The Sports Medicine Staff provides consistent service on a daily basis which includes injury prevention and acute care, post-injury rehabilitation, x-ray, and physician assessment.

Jim Hillis, a Registered Physical Therapist and Certified/Licensed Athletic Trainer, coordinates all rehabilitation protocols.

The combination of the staff and facility provide the care that is vital to a championship program. OU's facility is equipped with SwimEx aquatic therapy, isokinetic rehabilitation and testing equipment, along with cardiovascular and exercise equipment that offers the ability to manage the multi-level needs of OU's student-athletes.

2008 SIGNING CLASS

With a record five Big 12 Championships, a national title, a bowl appearance in each of his nine seasons and six stops at BCS games during Bob Stoops' tenure, it's more than coincidental that Oklahoma also produces well on signing day.

The OU head coach and his staff have apparently done so again, attracting a class that is roundly regarded among the top 10 in the nation. A total of 21 prospects inked letters of intent on the first day of the signing period.

The new Sooners represent a cross section of positions with three linebackers, three offensive linemen, defensive backs and receivers, two each at running back, defensive end, defensive tackle and defensive back and one each at quarterback and kicker.

Three of the signees hail from the junior college ranks while the other 18 are coming from high school. Two of those, quarterback Landry Jones and running back Justin Johnson enrolled at OU at the beginning of January to join in conditioning workouts and spring workouts as well.

Texas produced the most signees for OU with 11 followed by Oklahoma and Georgia with three and one each from Florida, Maryland, New Jersey and New Mexico.

UNT	10
OKLAHOMA	79

NORMAN, Okla. -- Sam Bradford's debut was one for the ages. The redshirt freshman completed 21-of-23 passes, including a school-record tying 18 in a row, for 363 yards and no interceptions as Oklahoma drilled North Texas, 79-10.

The Sooners' scoring total was their second highest during the modern era.

OU scored on eight of its first 10 possessions and the defense later added an interception for a return by Nic Harris and a safety by Alan Davis.

Another RS freshman, DeMarco Murray, rushed for five touchdowns, the second-highest total in school history. Malcolm Kelly hauled in a pair of scoring passes, as well.

MIAMI	13
OKLAHOMA	51

NORMAN, Okla. -- A game that was supposed to be an early-season classic turned into a lopsided Oklahoma triumph when the Sooners easily thwarted Miami, 51-13. A record crowd of 85,357 witnessed the game.

OU quarterback Sam Bradford completed 19-of-25 passes for 205 yards and five touchdowns with no interceptions. Three TD strikes went to Malcolm Kelly.

OU extended an early lead to 21-3 when Reggie Smith returned a fumble 61 yards for a touchdown. Then Miami mustered a bit of a rally to close the margin to 21-13. That's when the Sooners reeled off 30 unanswered points to end any doubt.

Oklahoma's defense was dominant, limiting the Hurricanes to just 52 rushing yards on 35 attempts, and stymieing the UM passing game to the tune of 11-of-24 for just 87 yards.

UTAH STATE	3
OKLAHOMA	54

NORMAN, Okla. -- Oklahoma scored on six of its first seven possessions and routed Utah State, 54-3. Big plays ruled the day as five of the Sooners' seven touchdowns covered at least 27 yards.

Juaquin Iglesias got the first score when he ran untouched for 35 yards on a double reverse on OU's first possession. Later the Sooners would tack on a 69-yard run by Allen Patrick and a 92-yard sprint by DeMarco Murray.

The final TD came on a 45-yard interception return by Curtis Lofton.

Sam Bradford hit 19-of-26 passes for 255 yards and three touchdowns. He completed his first 11 passes after hitting his final 10 against Miami. The redshirt freshman did throw his first interception of the season -- on his 61st attempt.

OU's defense allowed just 153 total yards and gathered four takeaways.

OKLAHOMA	62
TULSA	21

NORMAN, Okla. -- Oklahoma played a rare Friday night game and trailed for the first time in 2007, but still rolled, 62-21, at Tulsa. OU fell behind 7-0, but responded with 21 unanswered points and was never headed again.

Oklahoma's offense piled up 285 yards on the ground and another 268 through the air. The Golden Hurricane did throw for 398 yards, but absorbed six sacks and two interceptions. On the ground, TU had just 44 yards in 36 attempts.

Sam Bradford fired three touchdown passes, two to Juaquin Iglesias, DeMarco Murray scored three TDs, one on an 81-yard kickoff return, and Allen Patrick added two touchdown rushes.

Auston English had two sacks, while Lendy Holmes and Ryan Reynolds picked off interceptions.

OKLAHOMA	24
COLORADO	27

BOULDER, Colo. -- Colorado's Kyle Eberhart made a 45-yard field goal on the game's final play to lift the Buffaloes over previously unbeaten Oklahoma, 27-24. The kick completed CU's rally from a 24-7 deficit.

OU built its lead largely on two pass interceptions from strong safety D.J. Wolfe. Both set up Sooner touchdowns.

The Sooners struggled through the air, but rushed for 118, largely on the strength of Allen Patrick, who carried 18 times for 96 yards and two touchdowns.

The defense, which was on the field for much of the day, was led by linebacker Curtis Lofton, who tallied a career-high 16 tackles in his third straight double-digit tackle performance. The Sooners also got career-high tackles days from Ryan Reynolds (15), Reggie Smith (13) and Nic Harris (10).

TEXAS	21

DALLAS -- Two Oklahoma freshmen made their first Red River Rivalry one to remember as the Sooners downed Texas, 28-21, in the 102nd renewal of the storied game.

Sam Bradford completed 21-of-32 passes for 244 and three touchdowns with no interceptions and DeMarco Murray rushed 17 times for 128 yards, including a 65-yard TD sprint.

Two of Bradford's scoring tosses went to TE Jermaine Gresham, while a third went to Malcolm Kelly.

LB Curtis Lofton made the biggest defensive play of the game, stripping Longhorn RB Jamaal Charles of the ball at the Sooner five yard-line early in the second half.

CB Reggie Smith added another key takeaway later with a fourth-quarter interception that he returned 33 yards.

MISSOURI	31
OKLAHOMA	41

NORMAN, Okla. -- Oklahoma converted four Missouri turnovers into 24 points and whipped the Tigers, 41-31, in Norman.

The Sooners led most of the way, but relinquished the advantage with 1:30 to go in the third period when MU forged ahead, 24-23.

Oklahoma responded with a 12-play, 66-yard drive capped by a one-yard touchdown run from Chris Brown, the second of three he scored on the night.

Two plays later OU's Curtis Lofton, who finished with a career-high 18 tackles, returned a fumble 12 yards for a TD and the Sooners were up 35-24.

After a Nic Harris interception, Brown added a 17-yard burst to build a 41-24 bulge. Missouri added a touchdown with 12 seconds remaining.

The Sooners picked off three passes, two thrown by Chase Daniel.

OKLAHOMA	17
IOWA STATE	7

AMES, Iowa -- Oklahoma survived three turnovers, one of which led to Iowa State's only score of the game, in posting a 17-7 win over the Cyclones.

Aside from the scare prompted by the miscues, OU got a sterling performance from its defense. ISU passed for 174 yards and rushed for just 95, and got its only points of the day when the Sooners fumbled at their own 31.

Oklahoma trailed 7-0 at intermission, but got untracked in the second half thanks to a pair of Chris Brown touchdowns. He scored from eight and four yards before Garrett Hartley drilled a 43-yard field goal into the wind with just 1:34 remaining.

D.J. Wolfe and Curtis Lofton both logged 11 tackles for OU. The two combined on a key fourth-quarter play when Lofton tipped a pass that Wolfe intercepted. That sequence occurred with 6:54 remaining and the Sooners protecting a 14-7 advantage.

TEXAS A&M	14
OKLAHOMA	42

NORMAN, Okla. -- So methodical was Oklahoma's 42-14 handling of Texas A&M that some media called the game, "boring." The record books saw it differently.

Sam Bradford again tied the school record with five touchdown passes, while sending another record Jermaine Gresham's way. Four of Bradford's scoring passes were directed to Gresham, who tied the school single game record for touchdown receptions.

Oklahoma's defense stymied A&M, forcing four three-and-out possessions and two more non-scoring drives of five plays. Three times the Aggies lost yardage during an offensive possession.

The Sooners were basking in a 35-0 lead before A&M scored, and the second of the Aggie touchdowns didn't come until there were just 43 seconds remaining.

D.J. Wolfe led the OU defense by tying his career high in tackles (12) and picking up his first fumble recovery of the season.

BAYLOR	21
OKLAHOMA	52

NORMAN, Okla. -- DeMarco Murray scored four touchdowns, including two on dazzling runs, and Oklahoma overpowered Baylor, 52-21. It was the 17th win against no defeats for OU in the series.

Murray's first touchdown, a 25-yard scamper, made all the highlights as he weaved through and juked much of the Bears' defense. Later, he added an equally impressive 91-yard kickoff return for TD.

At the same time, QB Sam Bradford was on fire, completing 20-of-25 passes for 353 yards and three touchdowns with one interception. He was particularly good with the long ball, completing throws of 60, 51, 43 and 42 yards during the game.

Manuel Johnson snagged four passes for 126 yards and two touchdowns.

Baylor's offense was impressive, piling up 450 total yards, with 280 through the air and 170 on the ground. The Bears failed to score in the red zone twice.

OKLAHOMA	27
TEXAS TECH	34

LUBBOCK, Texas -- Oklahoma lost its starting quarterback early, then lost the game, 34-27.

The Sooners fumbled on their first possession and when Sam Bradford made the ensuing tackle he was done. Diagnosed with a concussion, the freshman's night was over just a few minutes and three passing attempts into the contest.

With Bradford sidelined, Oklahoma struggled to move the ball and a defense that was on the field frequently gave up 27 first-half points.

OU rallied in the second half as backup QB Joey Halzle finally got his sea legs. He drove the Sooners inside the Tech 15 on two other occasions in the fourth quarter, but the offensive unit was unable to produce points.

Other OU injuries included DeMarco Murray (dislocated knee cap), Adron Tennell (torn ACL) and Alan Davis (concussion).

OKLAHOMA ST.	17
OKLAHOMA	49

NORMAN, Okla. -- Oklahoma flexed its muscles in routing Oklahoma State, 49-17. The Sooners dominated in the trenches, especially on offense where they rolled up a season-high 307 yards on the ground.

Allen Patrick accounted for 202 of the rushing yards on 29 carries. He scored three touchdowns, two via the rush and another on an 11-yard reception.

OU scored on its first four possessions and had the ball for 33 minutes.

The Sooner defense made its key play in the second quarter during a goal line stand. On a fourth-and-goal from the one, OU's Curtis Lofton forced a fumble from Cowboy QB Zac Robinson. D.J. Wolfe recovered for Oklahoma and then the offense set sail on an 87-yard drive to hoist the lead to 28-7.

OU held OSU 18 points and 202 total yards below its season averages.

Sam Bradford completed 11-of-15 passes for 150 yards with four touchdowns and one interception. Joe Jon Finley caught two of the TD throws.

Oklahoma ran its series lead to 79-16-7, which makes it the nation's most lopsided series between two schools located in the same state.

MISSOURI	17
OKLAHOMA	38

SAN ANTONIO, Texas --Oklahoma overpowered No. 1-ranked Missouri in claiming its fifth Big 12 crown, 38-17, at the Dr Pepper Big 12 Championship. In a rematch of an earlier game at Norman, the Sooners dominated every phase and punished the Tigers by double digits for a second time.

The physical OU rushing attack, riding a 6.8-yard average from Allen Patrick, piled up 166 yards, while Sam Bradford outshined Heisman finalist Chase Daniel by hitting 18-of-26 passes for 209 yards and two touchdowns with no interceptions.

Conversely, the Missouri offense posted its lowest scoring (17) and total yardage (317) figures of the season. The Tigers got just three points and 125 yards in the second half when three of their five possessions ended in four plays or less. Daniel, who was sacked twice, completed 23-of-39 attempts. He threw one interception, which OU's Curtis Lofton returned 26 yards to the MU 7.

Oklahoma, which owns more than twice as many Big 12 crowns as any other league member, became the first program to win two straight.

WEST VIRGINIA	48
OKLAHOMA	28

GLENDALE, Ariz. -- West Virginia quarterback Pat White rushed for 150 yards and running back Noel Devine added 108 more as the No. 9 Mountaineers upset the No. 3-ranked Oklahoma Sooners in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

West Virgina was never headed in the game despite the passing of OU quarterback Sam Bradford, who hit on 21-of-33 for 242 yards and two touchdowns.

The Sooner defense never got a handle on WVU's offense, giving up 525 total yards, including 349 on the ground.

Due to injuries and ineligibility, Oklahoma played without four starters in the game, including three on defense.

GAME SUMMARY

This was the first Orange Bowl that featured two national powers as both teams were undefeated and untied. To lure the Sooners to Miami, the Orange Bowl director circled the Norman campus, leaving chalk messages that promoted the game. Tennessee's powerful ground attack was too much for the Sooners, winners of 14 straight, as the Volunteers raced to a 17-0 victory in the fifth annual Orange Bowl. The victory was the 13th straight for the Vols, who were coached by Major Bob Neyland. The game was considered to be the roughest of all bowl games played that year as both teams combined for more than 200 yards in penalties.

GAME SUMMARY

In a game that featured two of the marquee names in college football at the time, Oklahoma blasted North Carolina State 34-13 before an overflowing crowd of 10,000 in the second annual Gator Bowl. The Sooners did not take long to get on the scoreboard, two minutes to be exact, on an Eddie Davis one-yard plunge. N.C. State roared back to even the score, but OU put the game out of reach by scoring 20 second-quarter points and coasted from there. The marquee matchup was made possible because of the Tournament of Roses committee decision to match representatives of the Western Athletic Conference (now the Pac Ten) and the Big Nine, (now the Big 10). This agreement made it possible for teams not waiting for a possible Rose Bowl berth to be picked by the Gator Bowl committee.

GAME SUMMARY

It was legendary Coach Bud Wilkinson's first bowl game as the fifth-ranked and underdog Sooners took on the third-ranked and unbeaten North Carolina Tar Heels accompanied by their All-America tailback Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice. Oklahoma upset the 'Heels with the big play coming in the first quarter as linebacker Myrle Greathouse intercepted a pass and returned it 70 yards to set up Jack Mitchell's one-yard run. The Sooners never trailed after that.

GAME SUMMARY

Wilkinson's team was rated second in the nation and it was the first one of his squads to post an undefeated record, 10-0. The game was one-sided and still stands as the largest margin of victory in OU bowl history. One of the many Sooner big plays was Leon Heath's OU bowl record-breaking 86-yard TD run. The game was marred by an early-week incident where a former LSU player was caught spying on Sooner practices. It was the only time in Wilkinson's career that he publicly blasted an opponent.

OU lost a bowl-record five fumbles in falling behind 13-0. A fourth quarter 17-yard TD pass by Billy Vessels narrowed the margin but a come-from-behind effort was foiled by an interception in the final minute of play.

GAME SUMMARY

It was the first game of the contract that pitted the Big Seven champion against the Atlantic Coast Conference champ. Maryland came into the game as the regular season national champion with OU rated fourth. Twice, the Terrapins had first down with the ball inside the 10-yard line, and both times the Sooner defense refused to allow any points on the scoreboard. Sooner tailback Larry Grigg scored the only TD of the game with a 25-yard scamper in the second period. The 1954 bowl game was the first bowl game in which the players had to play both ways. Sooner hero Grigg also played defensive back.

Oklahoma got only six first downs, lost the total offense battle (328 yards to 279) and picked up an OU bowl-record 165 yards in penalties, but used two interception returns for TD, including an OU bowl record 94-yarder from David Baker, two fumble recoveries, a blocked punt and a bad snap from center to win going away. The 48 points marked an all-time OU bowl record that stood until matched by the '91 Gator Bowl team.

It was Bud Wilkinson's last bowl game. Paul "Bear" Bryant, coaching his alma mater, repeated his victory as the coach at Kentucky in the 1951 Sugar Bowl with a 17-0 triumph. LB Lee Roy Jordan, the MVP, and quarterback Joe Namath led the Crimson Tide to the victory. The Sooners had first and goal twice in the first half, but fumbles ended OU's chances and the Sooners never really threatened again. The lone highlight for the Oklahoma team was a visit by President John F. Kennedy to the Sooners' locker room. Although President Kennedy claimed neutrality, it was obvious by the grimace on his face he was backing the Oklahoma team.

Four Oklahoma players had been found ineligible the night before the game because they had signed pro contracts which was in violation of NCAA rules. FSU wide receiver Fred Biletnikoff finished the game with 13 receptions for 192 yards and four TDs.

Tennessee came back to narrow the Sooner lead to 19-17 before Oklahoma defensive back Bob Stephenson picked off a pass and raced 24 yards to give OU an all important insurance TD. The Sooners desperately needed the insurance when Dewey Warren plowed in from a yard out. The Volunteers then missed a potential game-winning field goal as the gun went off.

The Sooners roared to a 31-0 halftime lead and amassed 439 yards rushing by game's end, a new Oklahoma and Sugar Bowl record. QB Jack Mildren, playing in the final game of his brilliant college career, scored a Sugar Bowl record three times. GAME SUMMARY

Played for the first time on New Year's Eve, the Sugar Bowl brought the Big Eight Champion Sooners to do battle with Joe Paterno's fifth-ranked Nittany Lions. The Sooner defense posted a shutout while allowing only 11 first downs and 49 yards rushing the entire game. It was the first year that freshmen were eligible and Sooner wide receiver Tinker Owens celebrated with five catches, good for 132 yards and one touchdown. It was also the last game for Sooner head coach Chuck Fairbanks who left for the NFL the following spring.

Note that this Sugar Bowl game was played on December 31, 1972, instead of the traditional New Year's Day.*

GAME SUMMARY

It was Oklahoma's first bowl trip under legendary head coach Barry Switzer and a storybook setting. Ohio State, the No. 1-ranked team in the country, had lost in the Rose Bowl earlier in the afternoon. The upset gave the Sooners an opportunity to win the national championship if they could beat the Michigan Wolverines coached by Bo Schembechler. A 39-yard end around by Billy Brooks and a nine-yard keeper by Steve Davis were enough for a 14-6 victory and a fifth national championship.

The Sooners led 27-0 at the third quarter mark before the reserves added two more scores in the fourth period. OU did not punt the entire game, the only time in Sooner bowl history that had happened.

GAME SUMMARY

Called by Barry Switzer, "the most disappointing loss of my career," OU was a victim of one of the biggest upsets in bowl history. When Notre Dame downed Texas in the Cotton Bowl, OU was in the running for a national championship. A big win over Arkansas might impress the voters and secure the crown for the Sooners. As a result, Switzer went against his own strategy by choosing to receive the opening kickoff rather than play defense. OU fumbled inside its own 10 on the third play of the game and Arkansas immediately scored for a lead it never relinquished.

GAME SUMMARY

A truly amazing turn of events produced a rematch after Nebraska's victory in November. The Sooners, ranked No. 1 with one loss, had lost a heartbreaker to the Cornhuskers, 17-14, on a late fumble at the NU three-yard line. When the Huskers were upset the following week by Missouri, producing a Big Eight Championship tie, the Orange Bowl officials came up with the idea of a rematch, much to the Sooners' joy and the Huskers' shock. It went as predicted: an Oklahoma victory.

GAME SUMMARY

The Big Eight Champion Sooners met an undefeated Florida State team on New Year's night. After the Seminoles took a 7-0 first-quarter lead, OU unleashed 17 second-quarter points to take the lead for good. J.C. Watts was named Orange Bowl MVP on offense. He scored on a 61-yard option play and rushed for more than 100 yards. Bud Hebert, who recorded three interceptions, earned the award on defense. Billy Sims wrapped up his brilliant collegiate career scoring on a 22-yard pitch from Watts. Oklahoma finished third in the country and won the Orange Bowl for the third time in five tries under Switzer. The Seminoles crossed midfield only two times after the first quarter and never passed the 35-yard line.

GAME SUMMARY

This contest featured a rematch with a great deal more excitement as OU turned to a foreign weapon, the pass, to notch its third straight Orange Bowl win. QB J.C. Watts was chosen MVP and with good reason. The Seminoles used a fourth-quarter TD to break a 10-10 tie and seemingly gain control. OU was forced to start deep in its own territory after the kickoff with little time left. Watts went to work and passed the Sooners to the 11-yard line where he hit Steve Rhodes with a TD strike to pull the Sooners to within one with less than a minute to go. Watts then proceeded to hit tight end Forrest Valora for the two-point conversion that gave the Sooners their ninth Orange Bowl victory, including three in the last four years. Oklahoma finished ranked No. 3 in the nation.

Freshman Fred Sims rolled up 181 yards rushing in the game after rushing for just 179 in the regular season.

Dupree ran wild early, amassing 239 yards before recurrent leg injuries forced him out in the third quarter. The turning point came when Oklahoma punter Michael Keeling could not get his punt away and was forced to throw an illegal pass. The Devils took over at the OU 43 and later scored when Darryl Clack raced 15 yards for at TD.

GAME SUMMARY

Brigham Young was No. 1 in the polls, but Sooner head coach Barry Switzer had argued that the Sooners should be No. 1 because of a tougher schedule. A win over a fine Husky team would solidify that claim. However, Washington refused to cooperate and turned a 17-14 fourth-quarter deficit into a 28-17 triumph. The game was marked by a bizarre incident when, after an Oklahoma field goal, the Sooner Schooner raced onto the field as called for by tradition. The only problem was the drivers apparently had not received the proper permission for the trip. The team was penalized 15 yards and the loss of the three points.

Butkus Award winner Brian Bosworth had 13 solo tackles and the Oklahoma secondary picked off four Penn State passes to thwart any rallies. Tim Lashar booted an Orange Bowl record four field goals to give the Sooners an early lead. Lydell Carr and Keith Jackson then provided big plays, a 61-yard jaunt by Carr and a 71-yard pass play from Jamelle Holieway to Jackson.

The Sooners' hopes of winning their seventh national championship were put to rest by Miami, 20-14. The Hurricanes took the opening kickoff and moved 65 yards in eight plays for a 7-0 lead, then never looked back. The Sooner offense, which led the nation in six categories, was held to only 179 rushing yards and 255 overall. Late in the fourth quarter, the Sooners scored on a 29-yard fumblerooski which gave the Oklahoma faithful a flicker of hope. The Hurricane defenders blew it out when they sacked quarterback Charles Thompson and caused a fumble to ensure the victory.

GAME SUMMARY

After a dry three quarters and the score deadlocked at 6-6, Clemson held off a late Sooner rally to post a 13-6 victory and give the ACC its first victory over the Sooners in 16 tries. On the Sooners' last possession, OU took the ball over on its own 20 with 2:59 left on the clock. QB Jamelle Holieway, playing in his final game, scampered 11 yards on a fourth down to keep the drive alive. Holieway then completed passes of five, seven, four, 12, seven, 12 and 13 yards, to get OU inside the Tiger 14 with 12 seconds remaining. Two desperation heaves by Holieway dropped incomplete to end all Oklahoma hopes.

The Sooners scored the first two times they had the ball. Another Gundy TD pass boosted the lead to 21-3. Just over a minute later, the game MVP hit again and Oklahoma was cruising at halftime 28-3. Meanwhile, the nation's second-leading rusher was held to just 95 yards by the Sooner defense.

The Sooners started reserve QB Terence Brown, who had completed one of three passes on the season. Season starter Garrick McGee had contracted spinal meningitis and was unable to play. OU's defense surrendered 485 yards and four touchdowns through the air. BYU's John Walsh set Copper Bowl records for completions (31) and TD passes (4). Sooner linebacker Broderick Simpson was Defensive Player of the Game with 13 tackles, a sack and a broken up pass.

As the nation's only unbeaten team, the Sooners were the unanimous winners of the AP media poll. They were automatically crowned national champions in the coaches' poll under the Bowl Championship Series format. Led by Orange Bowl MVP Torrance Marshall, the Sooners time and again forced Florida State's Chris Weinke into bad decisions. Tim Duncan kicked two field goals and Quentin Griffin scored the clinching touchdown on a 10-yard run up the middle with 8:30 to play. Florida State avoided its first shutout in 12 seasons when Stanford Samuels tackled OU punter Jeff Ferguson in the end zone for a safety with 55 seconds remaining.

GAME SUMMARY

Arkansas' defense played well, but few will remember. Oklahoma's defense was that much better. The final statistics were as chilling and stark as the weather. The Razorbacks, who reached OU territory just two times the entire game, could muster only 13 passing yards on two completions while their rushing attempts (42) outnumbered their rushing yards (37). Sooner defenders tied a school and Cotton Bowl record with a whopping nine sacks. Late in the first quarter, Oklahoma set sail on a 13-play, 63-yard scoring drive that culminated in a one-yard sneak by quarterback Nate Hybl. Along the way, the Sooners converted two third downs and one fourth. The resulting touchdown and PAT made the rest of the afternoon academic. OU added a 32-yard field goal by Tim Duncan in the third frame to build a 10-0 advantage that felt like twice that given the play of the defense. Arkansas, aided by penalties, finally scratched out a field goal, but no serious threat to the outcome was ever mounted.

GAME SUMMARY

Riding its defense, LSU won the BCS title, 21-14. Oklahoma entered the game as the naton's top scoring offense, but struggled against the Tigers. The OU defense gave a good account too, surrendering 64 of LSU's 312 total yards on a non-scoring run on the Tigers' first snap. Still, it was the LSU defenders who stole the show. DE Marcus Spears returned an interception 20 yards for a TD on the first series of the second half and seemingly opened the floodgates. But OU stiffened and got its running game untracked. After pulling within seven at 21-14, the Sooners made another push to the LSU 12, but missed on four straight pass attempts, the last one with just 2:46 left. The crowd was the largest ever to see a sporting event in the Louisiana Superdome.

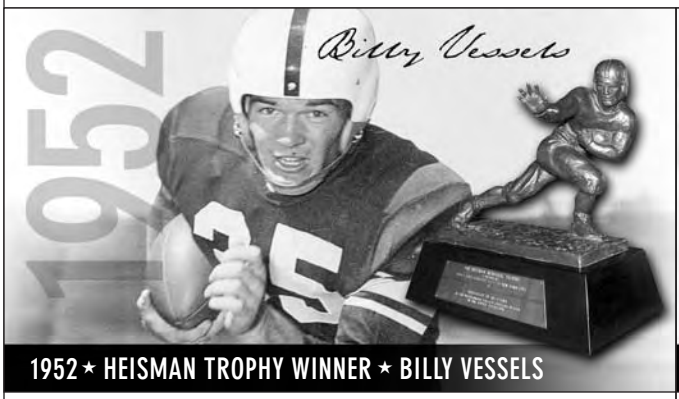
HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS



1952 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ BILLY VESSELS

Billy "Curly" Vessels was the man who started it all. The first Sooner to win college football's most prestigious individual achievement award, Vessels led the Sooners to a 26-4-1 record during his tenure.

The 1950 Sooners, under the direction of head coach Bud Wilkinson, went 10-1 to give the Sooners their first of seven national championships. As a sophomore, Vessels started on the 1950 squad, scoring 15 touchdowns.

But Vessels' most successful individual season came during his senior campaign when he won the Heisman Trophy. Vessels rushed for 1,072 yards on 167 carries and scored 17 touchdowns.

Creating a new meaning for the word "versatile," the Cleveland, Okla., slasher was part of every phase of the Sooner offensive attack. Vessels was even a threat from above. "Curly" connected on seven passes for two touchdowns in 1952.

The 1952 Sooners went 8-1-1, finishing fourth in the nation, and won Oklahoma's ninth conference title. OU opened with a 21-21 tie with Colorado and then reeled off five straight wins, averaging 46 points a game. OU dropped a 27-21 decision to Notre Dame and then finished strong by sweeping the last three games.

In 1953, Vessels turned pro for the Edmonton Eskimos and won the Schenley Award as the top player in Canada. Vessels then served as an officer in the U.S. Army. Vessels was elected to the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame in 1974.

1969 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ STEVE OWENS

Oklahoma's Steve Owens was a 6-2, 215-pound powerhouse from Miami, Okla., who ravaged defenses from 1967-69, setting four conference records of the day.

OU's workhorse carried the ball 358 times in 1969 for 1,523 yards while scoring 23 touchdowns (another school record). Playing on a 1969 squad that had been hurt badly by graduation in 1968, Owens carried the load for the Sooner offense.

Owens had two 200-plus yard games while leading the Sooners to a 6-4 season. Spurred by Owens' effort, Oklahoma averaged 28.5 points a game in 1969.

The great career of Steve Owens left a mark on the OU record book. Owens holds five Sooner records. He is the school's all-time leading scorer with 57 touchdowns during his career.

Owens holds the record for the most carries in a game (55) and career (958). He finished his career with 4,041 yards on the ground, the third most in school history.

Detroit drafted Owens in the first round. He was the first Lion to gain over 1,000 yards in a season and was an All-Pro selection in 1971 and 1972.

In 1991, Owens was named to the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame and was the Walter Camp Foundation Alumnus of the Year. Owens was inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1992.

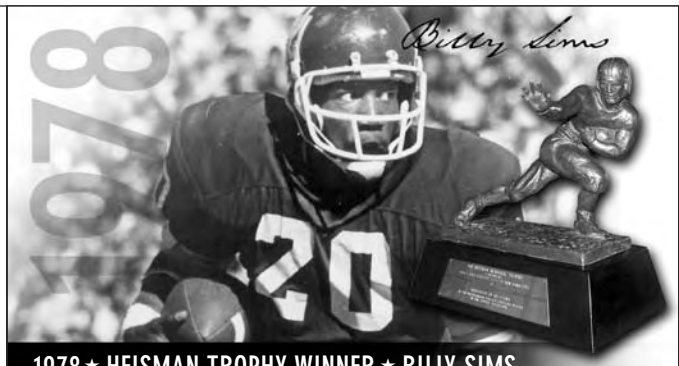
HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS



1978 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ BILLY SIMS

Billy Sims, a 6-0, 205-pound running back from Hooks, Texas, swept through defenses like a tornado flying across the Oklahoma landscape.

He set a Big Eight single-season rushing record in 1978 with 1,896 yards on 256 carries. Sims led the nation in rushing, averaging more than 7.0 yards per carry. He topped the 200-yard mark in four different games (a school best) during the 1978 season.

Sims led the Sooners to an 11-1 record, Orange Bowl championship and third-place finish in the final poll. OU opened with a 35-29 win over Stanford and then crushed West Virginia and Rice by a combined score of 118-17.

The Sooners rolled over Texas and the first five games of the conference schedule heading into the Nebraska game. Sims ran for 153 yards, but it was not enough as the Sooners fell, 17-14.

OU responded by clubbing Oklahoma State, 62-7, and then was rematched with the Cornhuskers in the Orange Bowl. OU edged Nebraska 31-24 in the second meeting between the top-10 schools.

Sims is second in the OU record books for rushing yards in a season (1,896), most 200-yard games in a season (4) and a career (7). He finished his career with 4,118 yards and stands first on the all-time rushing list.

2003 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ JASON WHITE

OU quarterback Jason White became the trigger man for the country's most potent offensive attack. At a school where the points have flowed like an Oklahoma gusher, White led the OU team that outscored all of its predecessors (601 total points).

He did so with uncanny accuracy, especially on deep throws, and a touchdown to interception ratio (four to one), so gaudy that it read like a typographical error.

White set school records for touchdown passes in a season (40) and game (5, twice). His season passing total ranked No. 2 at OU. He was No. 4 nationally in touchdown percentage (8.87), No. 7 in passing efficiency (158.11), No. 18 in interception percentage (2.22) and No. 22 in total offense (264.0).

The outpouring of recognition was impressive. White captured player of the year honors from the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and CNNSI.com. He also won the Davey O'Brien Award and the Jim Thorpe Courage Award.

White returned for another season after his Heisman campaign and finished third in the voting. It was an unprecedented finish by one school when his teammate Adrian Peterson finished second.

21 COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAMERS

Since its inception in 1951, the College Football Hall of Fame has become a shrine to the greatest names, both coaches and players, in collegiate football. Twenty-one of those have come from the University of Oklahoma. From Benny Owen's inclusion in the inaugural class in 1951 to its most recent induction, Tom Brahaney in 2007, Oklahoma remains a prominent name in the hallowed halls.

Kurt Burris played center in a time when centers also played linebacker. His skill as a blocker and tackler helped OU to a four-year record of 35-4-2. Burris was a consensus All-American in 1954 and finished second in the Heisman vote. The Helms Foundation named him Player of the Year, and the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association named him Lineman of the Year.

Forest Geyer was not a typical fullback, throwing as many as 35 passes in a game. As a sophomore in 1913, Geyer gained prominence when he replaced Hall of Fame fullback Claude Reeds. Geyer led Oklahoma to a 9-1-1 record in 1914 and a 10-0 record the following season. The 1915 team led the nation in scoring with 370 points, while Geyer led the nation in points after touchdowns and became an All-American.

Tommy McDonald scored touchdowns in 20-of-21 games during his final two seasons. In 1955, he became the first Sooner to score from scrimmage in every game. McDonald was a true double theart; a fast runner who could throw the ball on the run in the option. McDonald was an All-American in 1955 and 1956. He joined the Philadelphia Eagles and starred as a pass receiver.

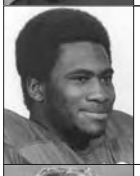
Jim Owens' college career was interrupted by service in the U.S. Navy but he returned in time for the 1946 season. Owens was named to the All-Time Bud Wilkinson Era team at Oklahoma. In Owens' last two years, the Sooners were 21-1. In 1949, OU went 10-0 in the regular season, co-captained by Owens. Owens won All-America honors and OU closed the season with a 35-0 Sugar Bowl victory over LSU.

Greg Pruitt was a unanimous All-American in 1971 and 1972. The Touchdown Club of Washington D.C. named him Player of the Year in 1972 after he finished third in Heisman voting in 1971, second in 1972. In 1971, he led the nation in yards per rush (9.4). He scored 38 touchdowns in 33 regular-season games. Pruitt was MVP of the 1970 Bluebonnet Bowl vs. Alabama. He played 12 years in the NFL.

J.D. Roberts was one of the most honored players of his time, playing right guard on the OU offense before becoming a two-way performer. Roberts made seven All-America teams and was the first to sweep all the awards given a lineman - the Outland Trophy and Lineman of the Year with Associated Press, United Press, Fox Movietone News and Williamson Syndicate. OU went 25-4-2 in his three years.

Billy Sims racked up 1,762 yards in 1978 and 1,506 yards in 1979 - both totals led the nation. His TD totals, 20 in 1978 and 22 in 1979, made him the national scoring leader both years. In 1978 he was named Player of the Year by AP and UPI, averaged 7.6 yards/carry and won the Heisman Trophy. In 1979, he was runner-up for the Heisman, capping the season as the Orange Bowl MVP as OU beat Florida State 24-7 in Miami.

Jerry Tubbs played three years at Oklahoma and OU won all 31 of his games. He was a fullback in 1954 and averaged six yards/carry before moving to center in 1955. He also played linebacker and, in a victory over Texas in 1955, intercepted three passes. In 1956, Tubbs was a unanimous All-American and was Lineman of the Year by three agencies. He was a member of the 1955 and 1956 national title squads.



In an amazing four-year stretch (1972-75), Joe Washington's led Oklahoma to a 43-2-1 record and two National Championships (1974-75). A two-time All American (1974-75), Washington tallied a school record 3,995 career rushing yards and 5,781 all purpose yards. Following his collegiate career, the San Diego Chargers selected Washington with the fourth overall selection in the 1976 NFL Draft.

Over 17 years, Bud Wilkinson's Sooners rolled to a 145-29-4 record. OU was virtually unstoppable, running off winning streaks of 31 and 47 games, the latter an NCAA record. Wilkinson's 1950, '55 and '56 squads were national champions and the 1956 Sooners averaged 46.6 points per game. His team won conference championships 14 of 17 years. In an 11-year stretch, 1948-58, his record was 107-8-2.

Center Tom Brahaney was the hub of the line of one of the most successful offenses in college football history. Brahaney was both an all-conference and consensus All-American in 1971. As a senior, he was a team captain, a finalist for the Lombardi Award and repeated as a consensus All-America choice. He played nine seasons with the NFL's St. Louis Cardinals.

A two-time consensus All-American, Tony Casillas won the Lombardi Award in 1985. Named UPI National Lineman of the Year and Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Casillas led OU to its sixth National Championship in 1985. The College Defensive Player of the Decade for the 1980's, he was selected second overall in the 1986 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. He played 13 seasons in the NFL.

From 1984-87, tight end Keith Jackson led Oklahoma to a 42-5-1 record and and the 1985 National Championship. A consensus All-American in 1986 and 1987, Jackson was a four-time All-Big Eight Academic choice. He won an NCAA Top Six award for academics. Jackson played professionally with the Philadelphia Eagles, Miami Dolphins and won a Super Bowl with the Green Bay Packers.

Bennie Owen was 155-60-19 over 27 seasons with high-scoring teams that often used the forward pass. Under his leadership, OU won titles in the Southwest Conference in 1915 and 1918 and the Missouri Valley Conference in 1920. Owen also was a driving force for a new stadium, which still serves as the foundation of today's facility. He was a charter member of the College Football Hall of Fame in 1951.

In three years, Steve Owens scored 56 touchdowns and had a string of 17 straight 100-yard games. In 1969, he led the nation in rushing (1,523 yards) and scoring (138 points). Owens was a workhorse and carried the ball 55 times against Oklahoma State in 1969, the same year he was a consensus All-American and the Heisman Trophy winner. Owens played seven years with the Detroit Lions.

Fullback Claude Reeds was Oklahoma's first great player. He was equally adept at rushing and blocking. Reeds downed many a tackler during the 1911 season, when Oklahoma posted an 8-0 record and outscored the competition 282-15. He was an All-Southwestern pick in three of his four seasons. In 1911, reeds unleashed a 102-yard punt against Texas during a time when the field was 110 yards long.

One of three All-America brothers that played at OU, Lee Roy Selmon won the Outland and Lombardi awards in 1975. In his three years as a starter, OU was 32-1-1 with two national titles. Selmon was also named a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete in 1975. After college, he played nine years with the National Football League's Tampa Bay Buccaneers, who made him the No. 1 overall pick in the draft.

Barry Switzer's teams won national championships in 1974, '75 and '85. In his 16 years, Oklahoma was 157-29-4 with 12 Big Eight Conference titles. During his tenure, OU played in 13 bowls with an 8-5 record. The Sooners scored 6,093 points to the opponents' 2,429 with Switzer at the helm. When he retired after the 1988 season, his winning percentage, .837, was the fourth-highest in history among 1-A coaches.

Billy Vessels received consensus All-America laurels in 1952 when he became Oklahoma's first Heisman Trophy winner. Vessels' career marks included 35 touchdowns and 2,085 yards rushing. He had 1,072 yards rushing in 1952 alone. The Sooners posted an 8-1-1 record that year, the only blemish a 27-21 loss to Notre Dame when Vessels scored all three of OU's touchdowns.

Jim Weatherall was a dynamic tackle for Oklahoma. He was a consensus All-American in 1950 and 1951. Weatherall won the Outland Trophy in 1951. He lettered four years at Oklahoma and was co-captain in 1951. He kicked 37 extra points in 1950 (fifth in the nation) and 39 in 1951 (second in the nation). In his career, Oklahoma had a 39-4 record with a 31-game winning streak and a national championship in 1950.

Walter "Waddy" Young was the first Oklahoma player to receive consensus All-America status. That honor occured in 1938 when he was named to the first teams by the AP, Colliers and the International News Service. On January 9, 1945, during a raid on Tokyo and while assisting a comrade whose plane had one engine on fire, Young died while serving his country.

OKLAHOMA ALL-AMERICANS

• During Bob Stoops' tenure, Oklahoma has produced 24 All-Americans. Sixteen of the 24 were consensus picks. Before he arrived in Norman, the Sooners had not produced a consensus All-American since 1988.

• Coach Stoops' 22 All-Americans include seven on offense, 13 on defense and two on special teams. They played 13 different positions.

• The most total All-Americans in one season came in 1975 when nine Sooners were so honored. There were seven during the 1974 and 2003 seasons.

• In 2003, Oklahoma set a record when six Sooners were named to the Football Writers' (FWAA) All-America team.

• Oklahoma had at least one All-American in 18 consecutive seasons from 1971-1988. There was also a 14-year stretch from 1946-1959.

• Three sets of brothers have been All-Americans at OU: Lee Roy, Dewey and Lucious Selmon all earned the honor as did Steve and Tinker Owens and Buddy and Kurt Burris.

• Seven Sooner All-Americans went on to serve as assistant coaches at OU: Leon Cross, Eddie Crowder, Frank "Pop" Ivy, Claude Reeds, J.D. Roberts, Lucious Selmon and Jackie Shipp.

ALL-AMERICANS UNDER STOOPS

OU All-Americans Since 2000

Oklahoma players have earned All-America honors 24 times during head coach Bob Stoops' nine-year tenure in Norman (an average of nearly three per year). The total includes 13 players from the defense, nine players on offense and two from special teams.

From Josh Heupel and J.T. Thatcher in 2000 to Curtis Lofton and Duke Robinson in 2007, Stoops has coached an athlete into earning All-America status every year but 2005.

During that span, 13 Sooners have been named consensus All-Americans on 16 occassions.

Five Sooners have received multiple All-America honors under Stoops' watch. Jammal Brown, Rocky Calmus, Tommie Harris, Teddy Lehman and Roy Williams have each garnered the honor twice in their respective careers.

Stoops' most fruitful year? 2003. Seven Sooners were hand picked to All-America teams, five earned consensus honors. Generally considered the most loaded squad at OU under Stoops, the 2003 group marked the largest pack of All-Americans since 1974 when eight OU athletes were named All-Americans, including five consensus All-Americans.

Showing versatility, players at OU under Stoops have earned All-America honors at every position except tight end and kicker.

2007 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ CURTIS LOFTON ★ LB

For a definition of a breakout season, see Curtis Lofton, 2007.

In his first season atop the depth chart, the junior from Kingfisher, Okla., put together one of the top seasons ever for an Oklahoma linebacker and was rewarded with a consensus All-American tag.

Lofton led Oklahoma with 156 tackles, sixth-best in program history, and established a school record with nine double-digit tackles including a career-high 18 tackles in the team's first meeting against Missouri.

The 2007 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, Lofton had a knack for forcing critical turnovers against big time opponents, never more evident than his interception of Missouri's Chase Daniel in the Big 12 Championship.

The one season of stardom paid off for Lofton, as the linebacker was OU's first selection in the 2008 NFL Draft, going in the third round to the Atlanta Falcons.

2007 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ DUKE ROBINSON ★ OG

A consensus All-American as a junior in 2007, Duke Robinson has continued to build upon his reputation as one of the best offensive lineman to pass through Norman.

A first team member of four All-America teams (Associated Press, American Football Coaches' Association, The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated), Robinson also earned first team All-Big 12 honors from eight different outlets.

The Atlanta, Ga., native took to the field early, playing in 10 games as a true freshman. From blowing open holes for Adrian Peterson to giving Sam Bradford time in the pocket, the versatile Robinson has proved his worth as a member of back-to-back Big 12 Championship teams.

2006 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ RUFUS ALEXANDER ★ LB

Linebacker Rufus Alexander was named first team All-America by the American Football Coaches' Association at the conclusion of the 2006 season.

The Baton Rouge, La., native led the Sooner defense in 2006 with 118 tackles (75 solo), including 12 for loss (-43 yards). Alexander was also credited with 3.5 quarterback sacks, four forced fumbles (two recoveries) and an interception.

Alexander had 36 starts in his career, including every game of the 2006 and 2005 seasons. He played in 39 total games for the Sooners from 2003-06 after redshirting in 2002. The 2006 Big 12 Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Alexander became the first OU player to lead the team in tackles in back-to-back seasons since Rocky Calmus did so in three consecutive seasons from 1999-2001.

ALL-AMERICANS UNDER STOOPS

2004 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ ADRIAN PETERSON ★ RB

The best season ever by a freshman? The argument could be made. Adrian Peterson set an NCAA freshman rushing record for most rushing yards with the third-highest figure in the nation for the season. He also eclipsed the OU standard for most rushing yards in a season.

On the awards circuit, Peterson had the highest finish ever by a freshman in the Heisman voting (second) and was the first freshman to be named a finalist for the Doak Walker Award. He was a consensus All-American.

Peterson's durability was surprising for a freshman. He led the nation with 339 rushing attempts and went over 100 yards in 11 of 13 games, including his debut. A thundering power back, he also had eight bursts of 35 yards or longer and 44 of 10 or more.

Peterson broke three NCAA freshman rushing records: most consecutive 100-yard rushing games (9), most total 100-yard rushing games (11) and most rushing attempts by a freshman with 314.

2004 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ DAN CODY ★ DE

Dan Cody was so destructive as a senior that OU coaches devised a special position for him. Cody, at times, stood up from his defensive end spot to play a spinner role. In that capacity, he roamed the defensive front and menaced opposing offenses. At season's end, he had the top sack total in the Big 12 with 10 and a spot on the FWAA's All-America team. Cody was a two-time finalist for the Hendricks Award who was noted for his all-out effort. At Texas A&M, he blacked out while exhorting teammates, then returned to the game.

2004 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ VINCE CARTER ★ C

A two-time finalist for the Rimington Award as the nation's top center, Vince Carter was a four-year fixture at Oklahoma. He was rewarded as a senior when he was named to the prestigious Walter Camp All-America team.

The Waco, Texas, native stepped in as a freshman when Josh Smith went out with an injury in 2001 and went on to start at center for the Sooners for four seasons.

He earned first team All-Big 12 Conference honors in 2003 and 2004.

As a senior in 2004, Carter helped pave the way for running back Adrian Peterson and protected quarterback Jason White -- both Heisman Trophy finalists -- as the Sooners completed a second consecutive undefeated regular season and won the 2004 Big 12 Conference Championship.

2004 & 2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JAMMAL BROWN ★ OT

A dominating senior season led to Jammal Brown earning Oklahoma's fourth Outland Trophy. He followed that up as a first-round pick (No. 13) by the New Orleans Saints.

He did not allow a sack or hurry during the regular season while logging a team-best 130 knockdown blocks. At season's end Brown was a consensus All-American.

As a junior, Brown had the highest line grade in a year when the offense had one of the most productive seasons in school history. The performance landed the Lawton native on the American Football Coaches Association's first team All-America squad.

Brown had 127 knockdowns and ran his string of consecutive starts to 28 during the season.

ALL-AMERICANS UNDER STOOPS

2004 & 2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ MARK CLAYTON ★ WR

Noted as one of the great stories of progress in OU history, Mark Clayton went from struggling to bench press 135 pounds in his first workout to twice being named an All-American. By the time his career was over, he held virtually every Sooner receiving record and was widely regarded as the best to ever play the position at the school.

After a wildly successful junior season, Clayton's numbers dipped somewhat as a senior, but that was attributable to an improved runnin`g game and a deeper receiving corps. He still led OU in receptions and yards and was named the the AFCA All-America team. Moreover, when punt returner Antonio Perkins was injured, Clayton added that role and took back one for a touchdown at OSU. As a junior, Clayton built a reputation as perhaps the most elusive receiver in the nation with 533 yards after catch (YAC). He set OU standards with 83 receptions for 1,425 yards and broke the school mark for receiving yards in a game with 190 against Texas.

2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ ANTONIO PERKINS ★ RS

Antonio Perkins became the nation's most feared punt returner by re-writing the NCAA record book during his junior season. He set an NCAA mark with four returns for touchdowns on the season, including an NCAA record three against UCLA.

He also set an NCAA mark with 277 punt return yards against the Bruins. His other touchdown return, which tied the NCAA career mark at seven, came against Missouri. The returns were spectacular too, with lengths of 84, 74 and 65 against UCLA and 65 against Missouri.

Perkins, who also started every game at cornerback and had two interceptions on the season, finished No. 20 in the nation in return average, but that figure was diluted by the fact that his 53 attempts out-distanced the rest of the country's returners by at least eight.

2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ DERRICK STRAIT ★ CB

Derrick Strait duplicated former OU great Roy Williams by winning the Nagurski (best defensive player) and Thorpe (best defensive back) Awards in 2003. Strait earned consensus All-American and All-Big 12 honors as a senior. He was named AP Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

Strait set school records for starts (53), career interception return yards (397) and passes broken up (53). The Austin native ignited Oklahoma's 65-13 win over Texas in 2003 with a season-high 11 tackles, an interception, a 30-yard return, two fumble recoveries and three pass deflections against the Longhorns. Strait was a Thorpe Award semifinalist and consensus first team All-Big 12 selection in 2002.

He started every game at corner and tied for the OU lead with six interceptions. He contributed immediately as a redshirt freshman and was named Big 12 Conference Defensive Newcomer of the Year in Oklahoma's 2000 National Championship season.

2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JASON WHITE ★ QB

From two reconstructive knee surgeries in successive years to consensus All-American. That was the out-of-the-blue story for Jason White, who wasn't even announced as the team's starter until the summer before the 2003 season. He posted mind-boggling numbers, the most impressive of which were the 40 touchdowns and just 10 interceptions.

White proved particularly adept at completing the long ball and set a school season record with 17 hookups of 40 or more yards. He completed 50 percent or more of his passes in all but two games and was over 60 percent nine times, including 16-of-21 against Texas and 16-of-18 vs. Texas A&M. He fired five TD strikes against both Iowa State and A&M and had a career-high 394 passing yards against Texas Tech.

2003 & 2002 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ TOMMIE HARRIS ★ DT

Tommie Harris rose to the pinnacle of his position in his junior season, which would be his last at OU. He departed for the NFL after just three years in Norman. As a junior, he continued to rocket into opposing backfields with his uncanny quickness. Harris had 10 tackles for loss and 19 quarterback hurries.

After finishing as a finalist for the Lombardi Award one year earlier, he won the coveted piece of hardware in his final Sooner season. He also was one of four finalists for the Nagurski Award, which went to teammate Derrick Strait. Harris' sophomore season was impressive despite an injury. Slowed all by a groin pull suffered in August, Harris still faced regular double teams.

He was named to three All-America squads and was named a finalist for the Bednarik Award. He was the 14th overall selection in the 2004 draft by the Chicago Bears.

2003 & 2002 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ TEDDY LEHMAN ★ LB

Determining the greatest linebacker in OU history is a tough chore. With Teddy Lehman in the mix, determining the fastest is much easier. That speed, which made him an outstanding high school sprinter, set the Sooner backer apart from his peers. He capped a brilliant career by winning the Butkus and Bednarik Awards after finishing as a finalist for each just one year earlier. His ability to get from sideline to sideline caught a lot of attention ... and ball carriers. As a senior, he had 117 tackles, including 19 for 47 yards in losses.

As a junior, Lehman logged 112 tackles, including 17 for loss. He also had two interceptions, which went for 51 yards in returns, including one that set up the go-ahead touchdown against Texas. His one-yard return against Texas as a sophomore, the one that came on the back end of a play that saw Roy Williams leap a blocker to disrupt Longhorn QB Chris Simms, is one of the most memorable plays in school history. He was picked in the second round of the 2004 draft by the Detroit Lions.

2002 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ BRANDON EVERAGE ★ FS

Free safety Brandon Everage earned All-America honors after a stellar junior campaign in 2002.

Six interceptions, with 107 yards in returns, would indicate that Everage understood the centerfield nature of his position. The 94 tackles, third-highest on the team, speak to the linebacker-like mentality with which the Oklahoma free safety played. It was that combination of abilities that landed Everage on the All-America rolls.

Everage recorded 60 tackles in 2003 (44 solo) including four for loss and one sack. He also nabbed one interception with four passes broken up.

2001 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JEFF FERGUSON ★ P

Most punters are known for the length and/or the accuracy of their kicks. Jeff Ferguson was outstanding in both areas. But Ferguson separated himself with athletic ability and intelligent play that made him the complete player at his position. He ended his career as the school record holder for punting average in a career and became just the second player in school history to average more than 40 yards in each of his four seasons. The length of the kicks did not come at the expense of accuracy. Twenty-one of his 71 senior season punts were downed inside the 20-yard line. The thunderous punts and the balls that trickled dead deep in enemy territory will be secondary as time remembers Ferguson's career, though. In his junior season, he made a brilliant play in the national championship game against Florida State, turning a bad snap into a safety rather than an opportunity for the Seminoles to get back into the game.

ALL-AMERICANS UNDER STOOPS

2001 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ ROY WILLIAMS ★ SS

By the time his career was over, Roy Williams was more feared by offensive opponents and more respected by his defensive peers than any player in the country.

In his final season at Oklahoma, he won the Nagurski Award as the nation's top defender and the Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. He was No. 7 in the Heisman Trophy voting, the highest finish of the year by a non-quarterback.

Williams bypassed his senior season of eligibility to enter the NFL draft, but still left his mark on the OU record book. He was drafted in the first round (No. 8 pick overall) in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

2001 & 2000 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ ROCKY CALMUS ★ LB

Only a few players define their position, but that is precisely what Rocky Calmus meant to college football. As a senior, he won the Dick Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, but also was a finalist for the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards as the nation's best defender and the Lombardi Award as the country's top interior player. His senior year total of 117 tackles vaulted him into Oklahoma's top five career tacklers and capped an incredible career.

As a junior, he was named the toughest player in college football by The Sporting News during the Sooners' 2000 national championship season. OU's all-time leader in tackles for a loss by a linebacker, Calmus was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press and was a finalist for the Butkus Award. A first-team All-Big 12 selection in each of his last three seasons, Calmus led the squad in tackles in each of those years. He was drafted in the third round of the 2002 draft by the Tennessee Titans.

2000 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JOSH HEUPEL ★ QB

The runner-up for the 2000 Heisman Trophy, Josh Heupel became Oklahoma 's first consensus All-America quarterback and the first Sooner QB to earn All-America honors since Jack Mildren in 1971.

As team captain his two years with the Sooners, Heupel is largely credited with turning an offense that statistically ranked as one of the worst in the nation before his arrival into one of the most explosive in the country.

Heupel was named Associated Press Player of the Year, Walter Camp Player of the Year, The Sporting News Player of the Year, CBS Sports Player of the Year, Big 12 Player of the Year and Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year in 2000.

The first-team all-conference selection guided OU to a school-record 13 wins and its seventh national championship. Heupel left with virtually every OU and numerous Big 12 passing records.

2000 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ J.T. THATCHER ★ FS/PR/KR

A standout on both defense and special teams, J.T. Thatcher was named an All-American as both a defensive back and returner. The Mosi Tatupu Special Teams Player of the Year Award winner, Thatcher was one of only seven players to return two or more punts for a touchdown in 2000 and ranked ninth nationally in punt return average. A four-time Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week selection, Thatcher set OU's single-game (160) and single-season (599) records for punt return yards. He also posted the second-highest single-game kickoff return yard total with 150, including a 93-yard return to set up OU's go-ahead touchdown against second-ranked Kansas State. Thatcher was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award and tied school records for interceptions in a game (3) and season (8).

OKLAHOMA AND THE NFL DRAFT

Including the four Sooners selected in 2008, OU has had 334 players picked all-time in the NFL Draft. Thirty-seven of those players were taken in the first round including two overall No. 1 picks: running back Billy Sims in 1980 and defensive end Lee Roy Selmon in 1976. All-America linebacker Brian Bosworth was the No. 1 pick in the 1987 supplemental draft by Seattle.

RECENT SOONERS PICKED EARLY

With Minnesota's selection of Adrian Peterson in 2007, Oklahoma has now supplied first-round selections for six of the past seven drafts. Davin Joseph was picked in the opening round by Tampa Bay in 2006. Jammal Brown and Mark Clayton were drafted in the first round in 2005. Tommie Harris went to Chicago in 2004, Andre Woolfolk was selected by Tennessee in 2003 and Roy Williams went to Dallas in 2002.

MOST FIRST-ROUNDERS

Oklahoma has had two seasons with three players selected in the first round: 1970 and 1976. The 1970 draft featured Steve Zabel picked No. 6, Jim Files No. 13 and Steve Owens No. 19. In 1976, Lee Roy Selmon was selected No. 1 overall and Joe Washington No. 4 with Billy Brooks as the 11th overall pick.

WHICH TEAMS HAVE DRAFTED THE MOST SOONERS?

Several teams, for one reason or another, have historically picked Sooners in the NFL Draft. Two newer teams have never drafted a Sooner:

Arizona / St. Louis Cardinals	37
Chicago Bears	25
St. Louis / Los Angeles Rams	24
Green Bay Packers	21
Carolina Panthers	0
Houston Texans	0

OKLAHOMA TRADITIONS

What is a Sooner?

Sports fans are hard-pressed to find a nickname that is as unique and as linked to a state's history as a Sooner. The University of Oklahoma is the only school known as Sooners.

Oklahoma Territory opened with the Land Run of 1889. Settlers from across the globe, seeking free land, made their way to the prairies of the plains to stake their claim to a new life. One of the few rules to claiming a lot of land was that all participants were to start at the same time, on the boom of a cannon. Settlers who went too early were called "Sooners."

OU athletic teams were called either Rough Riders or Boomers for 10 years before the current Sooner nickname emerged in 1908. The university actually derived their name from a pep club called 'The Sooner Rooters.' The success of University of Oklahoma athletic teams over the years has made the nickname synonymous with winning.

Crimson & Cream

In the fall of 1895, Miss May Overstreet was asked to chair a committee to select the colors of the university. The committee decided the colors should be crimson and cream and an elaborate display of the colors was draped above a platform before the student body. The students approved with great enthusiasm and immediately pennants, banners and decorations of every description appeared on the streets, in the windows, at chapel, in classrooms, and all public places around campus.

Sooner Schooner

The Sooner Schooner is a Conestoga, or covered wagon, reminiscent of the mode of travel used by pioneers who settled Oklahoma. The Schooner is powered by matching white ponies named Boomer and Sooner, and it ventures onto Owen Field in a triumphant victory ride after OU scores. Although the Schooner was introduced in 1964, it did not become the official mascot until 1980. The Schooner is well-recognized by college athletics fans across the country and makes regular appearances at university functions.

Boomer Sooner!

In 1905, Arthur M. Alden, a student in history and physiology whose father was a Norman jeweler, wrote the lyrics to the fight song, borrowing the tune from Yale University's 'Boola Boola' but improvising the words. A year later, an addition was made to it from North Carolina's 'I'm a Tarheel Born' and the two combined to form the university's fight song today. Though the tune was first made known by Yale, the everlasting success of Sooner squads has taken the melody of 'Boomer Sooner' to national popularity.

Oklahoma!

The Pride of Oklahoma plays perhaps the most popular and recognizable state song in history. Oklahoma! is the final rousing chorus of Rodgers and Hammerstein's epic musical. Breaking all Broadway box office records when it opened in 1943, Oklahoma! was the first collaboration between the legendary pair who were awarded a Pulitzer Prize for their seminal work.

The OU Chant

Every fan who wears the official colors, each current student and student-athlete and all OU alumni are encouraged to stand and raise one finger in the air during the playing of the Chant -- a symbolic gesture that shows the greatness of the university and the unity between all Sooners. The Chant was written in 1936 by Jessie Lone Clarkson Gilkey, who directed the OU girl's glee club from 1936 to 1938 and was voted Outstanding Faculty Woman in 1937.

O-K-L-A-H-O-M-A
Our chant rolls on and on!
Thousands strong
Join heart and song
In alma mater's praise
Of campus beautiful by day and night
Of colors proudly gleaming Red and White
'Neath a western sky
OU's chant will never die.
Live on University!

PRENTICE GAUTT ACADEMICS CENTER

The Prentice Gautt Academic Center provides student-athletes with a modern, state-of-the-art academic support facility that promotes excellence. The environment encourages a collaboration between staff members and student-athletes. In addition, it is highly conducive to learning in all areas of students' academic endeavors and features seven learning centers.

Located on the second and third floors in the north end of Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, the Academic Center houses Academic Counseling Offices, Computer Center, Learning and Skill Development Centers for reading, study skills, math, foreign languages, career, and communication, learning enhancement and study areas.

Academic Advising

Academic Advising Services, considered a campus-advising unit, are conveniently located within the center. The athletics department employs five professional full-time counselors who are here to help student-athletes through the educational process.

It is important that student-athletes utilize their services. They will assist student-athletes with planning their class schedule and deciding on a degree program that will suit their needs. In addition, they can help student-athletes with career planning, setting academic goals, academic support strategies and personal counseling.

Career Center

Whether student-athletes are freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors or alumni, they will benefit from the services of the Career Center. It provides a system of services that educates and guides students through the career development process.

The Career Center is dedicated to helping student-athletes make the transition from college to career by developing an individualized career plan where they gather information to assist in making a decision about a career. Additionally, they may obtain information on the suitable career list; explore classes and publications in the field as well as obtain experience; and gain knowledge and skills necessary for résumé writing, job-related letter writing, and interviewing techniques.

Kerr Foundation Computer Center

In the 21st century, computers have become an integral part of the learning experience. Students need access to computers and their resources almost daily. The Athletics Department provides each student with the equipment and support necessary to succeed.

The computer center within the Prentice Gautt Academic Center. The center has more than 200 computers, and is available exclusively to OU's student-athletes. This ensures that they will never go without computer access.

Laptop computers are checked out to student-athletes when the Computer Center is unavailable. The laptop program is very important in helping OU's student-athletes stay on top of their schoolwork when traveling.

Group training is available for all new student-athletes during the first week of supervised study. This helps familiarize each student-athlete with the department's resources and procedures. Individual training sessions are available to each student upon request and lab technicians are always on hand to help.

The Athletic Computer Center has been a model for other universities around the country. Upgrades are scheduled annually, along with a face lift for the entire facility. A deep commitment from the Athletics Department ensures that the excellence in the Computer Center will continue for a long time.

Communications Center

The academic center focuses on developing communication and public speaking skills for student-athletes. This state of the art center, coordinated by a broadcast professional, builds strong media relations skills through the use of video equipment.

Kerr Foundation Foreign Language Center

To assist student-athletes in speaking, listening, reading and writing in other languages, the Kerr Foundation Foreign Language Center offers a multi-media environment that provides instruction in all foreign languages and in English as a second language.

On an individual basis, student-athletes have the option of working with computers, audio-visual equipment and tutors in order to enhance student-athletes' language experience.

Math Center

If performing math functions is a problem, the solution is the Math Center. As a supplement to class instruction, the Math Center provides all levels of math computations, concepts and problems to help student-athletes review course material and offers personal and group tutoring sessions.

Study Skills Center

If student-athletes have trouble with assigned textbook readings or studying, the Reading and Study Skills Center can help. It provides student-athletes with reading and studying techniques and how to make direct applications to current resources.

Thompson Writing Center

Because learning and writing are essential life-long skills which can always be strengthened, the Writing and Study Skills Center offers personalized instruction to student-athletes who seek assistance in refreshing, reviewing, or improving these skills.

The professional consultants of the center help student-athletes with a variety of academic tasks, from learning strategy instruction to any stage of the writing process including preparing for an essay exam and the formal research paper.

The goal is to help student-athletes develop the strategies they need to be successful by encouraging the use of the center for all facets of the learning and writing processes encountered in college.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

DAVID & MOLLY SHI BOREN

David L. Boren

13th President, The University of Oklahoma

David L. Boren, who has served Oklahoma as governor and U.S. senator, became the thirteenth president of the University of Oklahoma in November 1994. He is the first person in state history to have served in all three positions.

Boren is widely respected for his academic credentials, his longtime support of education, and for his distinguished political career as a reformer of the American political system. A graduate of Yale University in 1963, Boren majored in American history, graduated in the top one percent of his class and was elected Phi Beta Kappa. He was selected as a Rhodes Scholar and earned a master's degree in politics, philosophy and economics from Oxford University, England, in 1965.

In 1968, he received a law degree from the University of Oklahoma College of Law, where he was on the Law Review, elected to the Order of the Coif, and won the Bledsoe Prize as the outstanding graduate by a vote of the faculty.

As Oklahoma's governor from 1974 through 1978, Boren promoted key educational initiatives that have had an enduring impact on Oklahoma. Established during his tenure were the Oklahoma Arts Institute, the Scholar-Leadership Enrichment Program, and the Oklahoma Physicians Manpower Training Program, which provides scholarships for medical students and medical personnel who commit to practice in underserved rural areas. Also, the first state funding for Gifted and Talented classes was provided in 1976 and, from 1976 through 1978, Oklahoma ranked first among all states in the percentage increases of funding for higher education.

One of Boren's most far-reaching projects in promoting quality education at all levels is the Oklahoma Foundation for Excellence, which he founded in 1985. The foundation recognizes outstanding public school students and teachers and helps establish private local foundations to help give academic endowment grants to local public schools. As a senator, he was the author of the National Security Education Act in 1992, which provides scholarships for study abroad and for learning additional languages, as well as legislation to restore the tax deductibility of gifts of appreciated property to universities in 1993.

Boren, also a former state legislator, spent nearly three decades in elective politics before becoming the president of the University of Oklahoma. Boren was the youngest governor in the nation when he served from 1974 to 1978. Known as a reformer, Boren campaigned with a broom as his symbol. During his term, he instituted many progressive programs, including conflict-of-interest rules, campaign-financing disclosure, stronger open meeting laws for public bodies, more competitive bidding on state government contracts, and reform of the state's prison system, including expanded education programs for first-time offenders and the largest expansion of the work-release program in state history.

During his time in the U.S. Senate from 1979 to 1994, Boren served on the Senate Finance and Agriculture Committees and was the longest-serving chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. From his days as a state legislator and governor of Oklahoma to Washington, Boren carried a commitment to reform, leading numerous efforts to make government work better for American citizens. As chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee, he strengthened oversight of secret government programs and reformed the procedures for Presidential notice of such programs to Congress.

For more than 10 years, he led the fight for congressional campaign finance reform and for legislation discouraging administration and congressional staff from cashing in on government experience and contacts by becoming lobbyists. In addition, he introduced legislation seeking to limit gifts and travel subsidies that government workers, including members of Congress, can receive from lobbyists. Boren also chaired the special 1992-93 Joint Committee on the Organization of Congress, which produced proposals to make Congress more efficient and responsive by streamlining congressional bureaucracy, reducing staff sizes and reforming procedures to end legislative gridlock.

Boren left the U.S. Senate in 1994 with an approval rating of 9l percent after being reelected with 83 percent of the vote in 1990, the highest percentage in the nation in a U.S. Senate contest in that election year.

Boren served from 1988 to 1997 as a member of the Yale University Board of Trustees. His university experience also includes four years on the faculty of Oklahoma Baptist University, where he was chairman of the Department of Political Science and chairman of the Division of Social Sciences. In 1993, the American Association of University Professors presented Boren with the Henry Yost Award as Education Advocate of the Year.

In April 2004, Boren received the Mory's Cup from the Mory's Association at Yale University. In making the presentation to Boren it was noted that he was the first Yale graduate in the university's history extending over three centuries to have served as a Governor, U.S. Senator and President of a major university.

Under Boren's leadership, the University of Oklahoma has developed and emerged as a "pacesetter university in American public higher education," with 20 major new programs initiated since his inauguration. They include establishment of the Honors College, the Charles M. Russell Center for the Study of Art of the American West, a new expository writing program for freshmen modeled on the program at Harvard, an interdisciplinary religious studies program, the Artist-in-Residence Program, the International Programs Center, and the Faculty-in-Residence Program putting faculty family apartments in student residence halls. The Retired Professors Program has been started, bringing 50 retired full professors back to the University to teach freshmen.

The number of new facilities started or completed on the campus during the Boren years has matched the explosion in new programs. Since 1994, almost $1 billion in construction projects have been completed or are under way on OU's three campuses. Among the largest of the recent projects are the $18.7 million renovation and expansion of historic Holmberg Hall, home of music and dance programs; the $67 million National Weather Center; the $19 million addition to the Michael F. Price College of Business; the $17 million Gaylord Hall for journalism and mass communication; the $27 million Stephenson Research and Technology Center; and the $83.5 million stadium project. The Health Sciences Center has a new Student Union, and the new $24 million Stanton L. Young Biomedical Research Center.

Presidential Travel Scholarships, students from 111 countries on campus, more reciprocal international exchange agreements than any other university and the new International Programs Center are all making OU more international. The new Honors College helps to assure that no students need to leave Oklahoma to find an educational experience to match their potential.

In 1995, Boren launched the "Reach for Excellence" fundraising campaign with a five-year goal of $200 million, which was twice as large as any fundraising drive in Oklahoma history. The drive exceeded $500 million, raising OU into the top 15 public universities in the United States in private endowment per capita. Since 1994, endowed professorships have more than quadrupled and the OU donor base has grown from 18,000 to more than 107,000 friends and alumni. During the first 10 years of Boren's tenure over $1 billion in private gifts were donated to the university.

Above all, the Boren years have been marked by an emphasis on putting students first. There is not a university president in the country that is more committed to students as his number one priority. He teaches a freshman-level course in political science each semester and is one of the few presidents of major universities to teach.

Boren is married to Molly Shi Boren, a former judge and English teacher. Mrs. Boren is President Emeritus of the Oklahoma Arts Institute, which provides education programs in nine arts disciplines for high school students from across the state who are gifted in the arts. Molly Boren has two degrees from the University of Oklahoma, a master's degree in English and a Juris Doctorate from the OU College of Law. A native of Seminole, Boren has two children, Carrie Christine Boren, an Episcopal minister, and David Daniel Boren, a member of the United States Congress from Oklahoma. Devoting much of his life to public service, Boren drew from the example of his parents, the late Congressman Lyle H. Boren and Christine Boren.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Joe Castiglione

Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics Programs and Director of Athletics, The University of Oklahoma

Principle Centered Leader ...Visionary ... Passionate Advocate for Student-Athletes ... Establishes Standards of Excellence & Cultural Values ... Builder of Championship Programs

Each of those characteristics, standing alone, describes the 11th director of athletics in University of Oklahoma history. However, just as he has brought together different groups who are committed to one goal, you must combine those traits to get the complete picture of the person who has led the OU athletics department since 1998.

Joe Castiglione has established a pattern of excellence that few in his profession can match. In an environment where every decision is made reflecting the department's mission statement "Inspiring champions today ... Preparing leaders for tomorrow," forming the background, Castiglione is leading the department that has written one of the most successful eras in school history.

Quick to give credit to the student-athletes and coaches, the staff and the university administration, the donors and the fans, Castiglione was the one who implemented the changes that led to success. When he was hired in 1998, the search committee believed they had found a rising star in the field of intercollegiate athletics administration. Everything that has happened since his arrival at OU has cemented that reputation.

The accomplishments of the department and its student-athletes, coaches and staff have earned national recognition for the university and the department. Recognized as the 2007 PRISM Award winner by the School of Sports Management at the University of Massachusetts, OU was just the second Division I winner and all of the programs recognized by the selection panel were started under Castiglione's leadership. The PRISM Award annually recognizes one Division I intercollegiate athletics department that demonstrates industry-leading excellence and innovation in sports management.

His commitment to the success of student-athletes led NCAA President Dr. Myles Brand to appoint him as chair of the Football Academic Progress Rate (APR) Working Group in June of 2008. This group, which includes presidents, chancellors, conference commissioners, faculty athletics representatives, athletics directors and head football coaches, has been given the charge to review the APR as it pertains to Division I football student-athletes. When the study is complete, the group will report back to Dr. Brand and the NCAA Board of Directors with their findings, evaluations and recommendations for improvement.

His peers have honored him for the department's achievements as well. In October 2004, the Bobby Dodd Foundation named him Athletics Director of the Year. In 2003, he was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators Hall of Fame. In June 2001, he received the General Robert R. Neyland Athletic Director Award for lifetime achievement from the All-American Football Foundation. The National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) named him Central Region AD of the Year in 2000.

Perhaps his most unique achievement over the last 10 years for Castiglione, though, came when he received his master's of education degree from OU in May 2007. To understand the need for education and lifelong learning, OU's student-athletes just have to look at their AD who started and completed his master's degree while running the department and maintaining his priorities to his family. He quickly put his experience to use as an adjunct professor in the College of Education teaching a graduate class in Marketing & Development.

The 11th director of athletics at the University of Oklahoma has celebrated seven national team championships and over 40 conference team titles; record numbers of graduating student-athletes and record-setting grade point averages for Sooner teams; dramatically increased donor giving; huge increases in ticket sales for all sports; major facility improvements, and development and construction of new facilities. And, as aggressive as the push to improve, expand and excel has been, he has produced a balanced budget in every year of his tenure, a first since the early 1980s.

Other highlights of Castiglione's tenure include:

• An annual finish among the top 25 in the standings for the Director's Cup which measures overall athletics success in eight of the last nine years, including an all-time program best of 15th in 2003-2004. OU ranked 23rd in the 2007-08 standings.
• The Sooner men's gymnastics team won its eighth NCAA title in 2008. It marked the fifth national championship for the program in the last seven years. The Sooners were led by OU's most decorated gymnast in school history and latest Olympian, Jonathan Horton, who will be representing the U.S. in Beijing in August.
• A total of 29 OU teams that have ranked among the top 10 in season-ending polls.
• A school-record and Big 12-best graduation rate of 74% in 2003.
• Three appearances in the BCS National Championship Game and the college football national championship in 2000.
• Appearances by the men's and women's basketball teams in their respective Final Fours in 2002.
• A Division I record of 74 combined victories produced by the football team and both basketball squads in the 2001-02 school year.
• An average of more than 17 out of 20 OU teams per year represented in postseason play. A total of 18 of OU's 20 teams advanced to NCAA competition in 2007-08 and conference titles were produced by football, men's gymnastics and women's gymnastics.

Credited with energizing OU's fund-raising efforts, Castiglione was instrumental in the athletics department's major campaign, Great Expectations: The Campaign For Sooner Sports. The campaign ended in November of 2003 with more than $125 million raised. The figure has grown to almost $200 million since then as the department continues its approach, and largest fund-raising effort in OU athletics history including projects that impact each of OU's nearly 500 student-athletes. It has become a national model for intercollegiate athletics.

Castiglione has cultivated over 20 multi-million dollar gifts, including the largest capital gifts in history for athletics at OU, and some of the largest ever for the university as a whole. He has driven dramatic facilities projects, including a $70 million renovation and expansion of Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. Others include a $17.2 million renovation of Lloyd Noble Center; phase I of The Headington Family Tennis Complex; John Jacobs Track and Field Complex; the Everest Training Facility, one of the largest indoor practice areas in the country; and construction of the Gregg & Betsy Wadley Indoor Tennis Center. Other projects completed in his tenure have included the redesign of the Sooner football practice fields; the Port Robertson Wrestling Facility; phase I & II of the Sooner Soccer Complex, expansion of the Viersen Gymnastics Pavilion as well as additional renovations to the McCasland Field House; L. Dale Mitchell Park, the Charlie Coe Golf Learning Center, the OU Softball Complex and Barry Switzer Center. His administrative work, which has seen significant reorganization and the hiring of 12 head coaches, also included the negotiation of multi-million dollar multi-media rights contract that produces more than $8 million in annual revenue for the athletics department. His leadership was instrumental as well as the Sooners added their 21st athletics team to the OU family, women's rowing (which will begin competition in the fall of 2008) and the design and construction of the new McClendon Boathouse on the Oklahoma River.

Castiglione was hired on April 30, 1998, after serving as athletics director at Missouri. In his 17-year career with the Tigers, Castiglione, who was named director of athletics at Missouri on Dec. 15, 1993, was credited with rebuilding sports programs, hiring outstanding coaches, implementing an innovative master plan for facilities, inspiring record-setting increases in fund-raising and balancing the budget in each of his five years as athletics director.

A 1979 Maryland graduate, Castiglione received the University's Distinguished Alumnus Award in April 2007. He began his career as the sports promotions director at Rice. He then worked a year as director of athletic fund-raising at Georgetown before being hired in 1981 at Missouri as director of communications and marketing.

Active on the national and conference level, he is currently serving on the Gatorade Collegiate Advisory Board and the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Board of Directors. He served two terms as chair of the Big 12 Board of Athletics Directors and is a past president of the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and NACDA. He served a four-year term on the NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet and the NCAA Baseball Committee and is a past member of the NCAA Football Special Events Certification Committee. He recently agreed to serve on the NCAA Diversity Leadership Strategic Planning Committee and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Discussion Group. In 2007, he was named to the Phi Delta Theta Foundation Board of Trustees. He is a highly requested speaker at annual conventions and continuing education institutes.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Castiglione was born Oct. 8, 1957. He is married to the former Kristen Bartel, a 1990 graduate of the University of Missouri. They are the parents of two sons, Joseph Robert, Jr., born on December 20, 1996, and Jonathan Edmund, born on March 21, 2000.

OU ATHLETICS DEPARTMENT

The mission of the University of Oklahoma Athletics Department is to inspire champions today and prepare leaders for tomorrow by providing an excellent environment to enable student-athletes to achieve their highest academic, athletic and personal aspirations.

Core Values

- Integrity
- Passion for Excellence
- Commitment
- Respect & Responsibility for Self & Others
- Appreciation for and Encouragement of Gender & Cultural Diversity

Philosophy

The University of Oklahoma Athletics Department promotes excellence in athletics without compromising excellence in academics or integrity in its commitment to rules or conduct. Student-athletes are encouraged by the coaching and administrative staff to maintain a balance between athletics, academics, and the social aspects of college.

It is believed that athletic participation gives an added dimension to the student's overall college experience and provides an opportunity for social, moral, emotional, and cultural growth and development.

The athletic programs strive to create traits that once acquired will carry over and benefit student-athletes in their personal and professional endeavors. The University of Oklahoma maintains a tradition of excellence in intercollegiate sports.

The Athletics Department continues to uphold this tradition by striving to make each athletic team and individual of championship caliber. Its staff members work to instill in student-athletes an appreciation for hard work, perseverance, and pride in accomplishment. It is believed these attributes will be utilized throughout the student-athlete's life.

OKLAHOMA MEMORIAL STADIUM

Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and, following its recent expansion, now ranks among the 15 largest on-campus facilities in the nation.

Memorial Stadium's rich heritage has not hindered its evolution, a never-ending growth fueled by the football program's overwhelming popularity. Almost since its inception, the stadium has been a work in progress. That fact holds true today. Using bond money and generous contributions, the stadium has recently undergone a number of changes. The most major of those was a $65 million venture that added 8,000 seats, including 27 suites, on the east side. Work was completed in the summer of 2003.

At the same time, the press box was remodeled and outfitted with several state of the art features. Another phase of that project stretched into 2004 when renovations to the Santee Lounge, restroom and concessions facilities and a new brick facade on the west side were completed.

In the two years prior to the stadium upgrade and expansion, renovations were completed in the coaches' offices, locker rooms, sports medicine and weight training facilities.

An additional 27 suites in the new east upper deck opened in time for the 2004 season bringing the total number of suites to 63.

In 1921, University of Oklahoma students started a movement for construction of a student union. By 1925, the idea had grown to include a combined football stadium/student union.

In the original architect's drawings, the north end of the proposed structure was strikingly similar to the present Oklahoma Memorial Union, which eventually was constructed separately when head coach Bennie Owen suggested it would be best to raise funds for a union and a stadium.

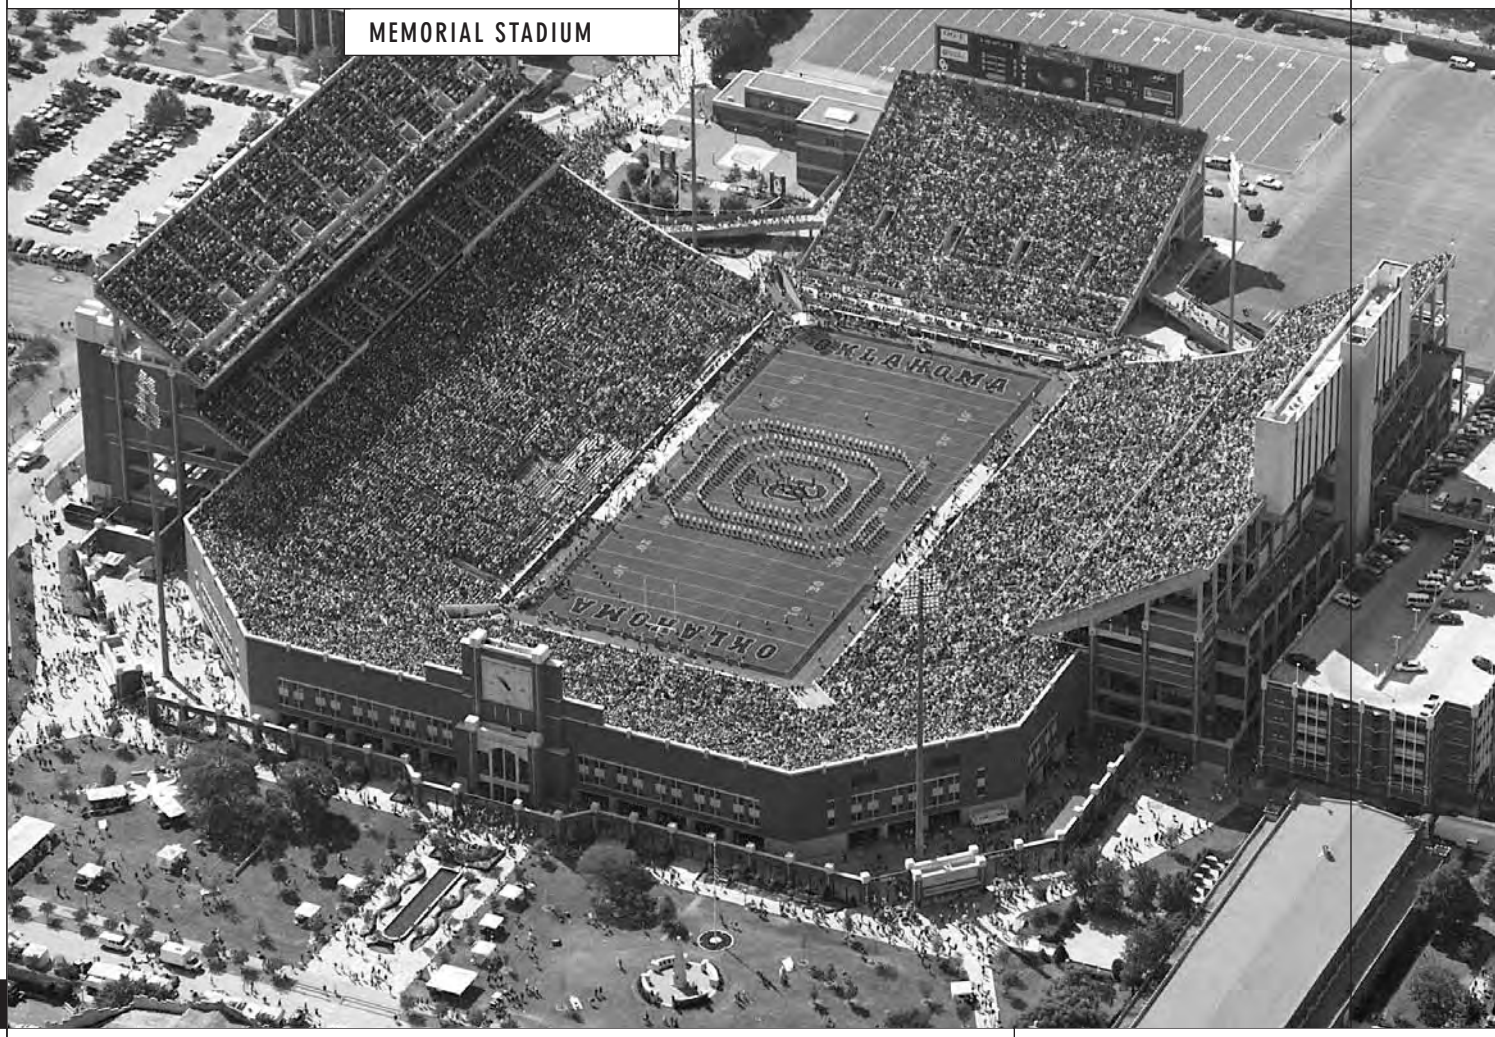
The first game played at the site took place Oct. 20,1923 (a 63-7 win over Washington, Mo.), before the stadium/union plan got under way. The field was named Owen Field after Owen, who became a charter member of the National Football Hall of Fame.

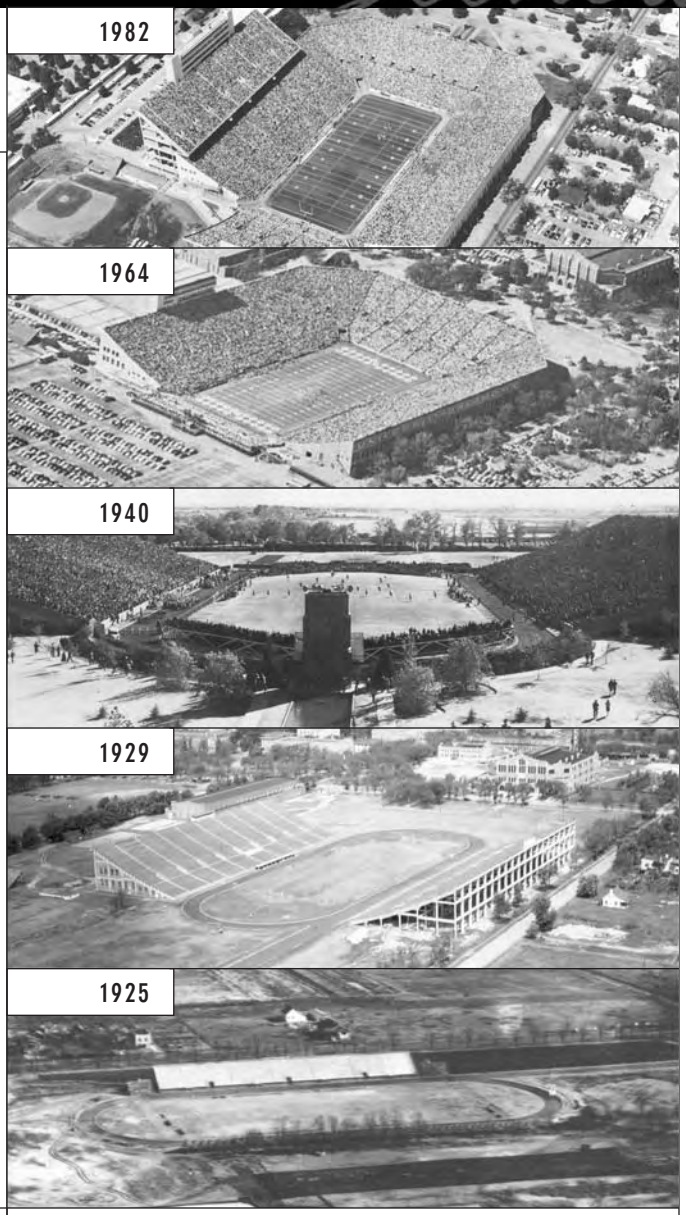
In 1925, the first contest was played in front of the new stands on the west side of the field. The 16,000-seat Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, named in honor of University personnel who died in World War I, was erected at a cost of approximately $293,000.

Stands on the east side of the stadium were added prior to the 1929 season. That addition increased the seating capacity to 32,000, where it stood for 20 years.

In 1949, OU president George L. Cross pushed for expansion and the result was a six-foot lowering of the old playing surface and the elimination of a running track that surrounded the playing area.

MEMORIAL STADIUM





The changes produced 7,000 new ringside seats and brought capacity to 55,000. The north end of the stadium also was enclosed. In 1957, green grandstand bleachers were added to the south end of the field, enabling the stadium to hold 61,836 fans.

Eighteen years later came the addition of the upper deck and new press box. Another 8,436 seats were added at a cost of $5,726,345. Capacity for the 1975 National Championship season was 71,187. Before the 1980 season, the old green bleachers were replaced with the new south end zone facility. In addition to improved seating, the complex included coaches' offices, the weight room, meeting rooms, a training room, the equipment room and two locker rooms. The addition brought the stadium capacity to 75,004. Capacity was decreased to 72,765 prior to the 1998 season to provide more wheelchair seating.

In July, 1970 the original natural grass surface was removed and artificial turf was installed. That tartan turf was replaced with super turf before the 1981 season. Owen Field returned to grass in 1994.

A Stadium Master Plan was approved by the OU Board of Regents in June 1994. Construction of nine west side suites began in April 1995 and was completed that year. The suites are leased annually. Eight of the suites seat 12 and the President's suite seats 24.

Subsequent improvements included the installation of stadium lights to allow night games, a new scoreboard and a video screen.

The Barry Switzer Center, named after the former OU head football coach, opened in April 1999. The complex includes a sports medicine facility with the latest equipment and technology to better accommodate OU's student-athletes; the Robin Siegfried and Family Strength and Conditioning Facility, which can accommodate more than 400 athletes; new locker rooms; new coaches offices; the Anderson All-American Plaza and the OU Touchdown Club Legends Lobby. The Legends Lobby, which underwent a $1 million upgrade in the summer of 2004, features some of OU's finest moments, most legendary figures and rare memorabilia.
